Kathryn Watson Quigg called the meeting to order at 6:30 p.m.

The Board of Education and the Town of Cary met on Tuesday, September 10, to discuss concerns of Cary citizens.

- Cary believes more schools of choice are needed in their area.
- Cary is concerned about reassignment.
- Cary would like more stability in school assignment.

The school board listened to all concerns. The board emphasized its mission is to do what is right for all of Wake County, including Cary.

This meeting adjourned with a plan to form a small subcommittee between the two boards to look at the critical issues and define the next steps. The working group will meet in Cary on September 26, 2002, at 4:00 p.m.

ADJOURNMENT

There being no further business, Kathryn Watson Quigg adjourned the meeting at 8:38 p.m.
Respectfully submitted,
