For Bystanders

- If it is safe, speak up. Say something like, “Stop it!”
- Tell an adult. Tell a teacher or coach you trust.
- Be a friend to the person who is being bullied. Talk with them. Sit with them at lunch.
- Set a good example. Do not bully others.

Monitor & Report

- Monitoring: Administrators, teachers, and staff should be on the lookout for bullying not only in the classroom, but also in the hallways, cafeteria, bathrooms, gymnasium, on sports fields, other areas of the school, and on the school bus. To do so, you need to know the warning signs of bullying.
- Reporting: After each intervention, report the incident.

Follow-up Intervention

- Intervening in bullying does not necessarily mean immediately turning to traditional forms of discipline. Discipline should be considered as one part of a holistic approach to addressing bullying. It should be used in conjunction with other educational and restorative strategies.
- Interventions should clearly label bullying as unacceptable, build awareness, and help students develop the skills, empathy, and insights they need to find alternatives to bullying. Interventions should also assist to restore positive relationships between the students involved in bullying and improve the school climate.
