celebrating 20 years of summer jazz

The UNCW Summer Jazz Workshop has established itself as the premier summer workshop for jazz study in North Carolina for middle and high school student musicians. Directed by noted music educator Frank Bongiorno, the summer jazz workshop provides students an opportunity not only to mingle with and learn from gifted educators and professional performers on the UNCW faculty, but also to enjoy an intensive week-long event of music making and jazz study in an intimate and supportive environment. The workshop covers virtually every aspect of jazz study and provides ample opportunities to work one-on-one with jazz faculty and guest artists.

sunday, july 9.....check-in friday, july 14..... check-out

Check out of dorm after dinner and before concert.

typical daily schedule

- jazz theory and improvisation classes
- jazz history and arranging
- master classes for each instrument
- individual lessons
- small and large ensemble experiences
- evening performances by faculty and students
- daily special topic presentations by the jazz faculty
- work directly with faculty on your instrument in a day of one-on-one student/faculty sessions

uncw faculty

Each member of the jazz faculty maintains a busy performance schedule as a soloist as well as a recording and supportive musician. The collective musical experiences of members of the faculty read like a who's who of jazz. As active clinicians and performers throughout the country, they are dedicated to the pedagogy and perpetuation of jazz as an art form.

eligibility and enrollment

The 2017 UNCW Summer Jazz Workshop is geared toward middle and high school students who have participated in band and/or jazz band. Applications must include a completed registration application and recommendation from your band director or private teacher.

Acceptance is based upon the merit of your registration application information and teacher recommendation. Enrollment is on a first-come, first-served basis, as well as projected needs for instrumentation balance within the jazz ensembles: 20 saxophones, 20 trumpets, 20 trombones, 8 guitar, 8 piano, 8 bass, 8 drums.

Students accepted for enrollment will receive a registration fee remittance form to be completed and returned with full payment to confirm the student's participation in the summer jazz workshop.

enrollment and registration timetable

- ¹ All application materials due prior to June 30, 2017.
- ² Enrollment status decisions will be made and students informed by letter after all application materials are received, no later than July 1, 2017.
- ³ Full payment is due upon student notification to finalize the registration process.

fees | payment

$495 for tuition, housing and three daily meals during the workshop. In event of cancellation, a $50 fee will be withheld from your refund.

summer jazz workshop scholarships

The Summer Jazz Workshop offers partial scholarships for talented students who might not otherwise be able to attend. Scholarships are based upon student ability as well as projected needs for instrumentation balance within the ensembles. Students who have performed in All-State Bands may receive primary consideration. Please contact Dr. Frank Bongiorno at 910.962.3395 or e-mail at bongiorno@uncw.edu for more information and/or scholarship consideration. Scholarship application deadline is June 15, 2017.

UNC Wilmington Jazz Program

The Department of Music offers enriching and challenging degrees in music, including a course of study with an emphasis in jazz studies.

UNCW's jazz program has developed from a single jazz ensemble in 1982 into a degree program offering comprehensive curriculum that includes two levels of jazz improvisation, jazz history, jazz arranging, jazz pedagogy and a modern jazz performance practice course that combines historical perspectives with improvisational practices from 1940 to the present. With performance as the foundation of the jazz studies program, students are afforded numerous opportunities to participate in ensembles, including big band, combos, supersax groups and guitar ensemble.

UNCW hosts an annual Guest Artist Jazz Festival and UNCW Day of Rhythm, bringing some of today's best jazz artists and teachers to campus each year. Overall, UNCW offers an enriching and challenging jazz studies program with opportunities for students to work alongside some of the best jazz musicians and teachers in the country.
