Congratulations to the Cary High School Culinary Academy students who competed in the National ProStart restaurant management competition last weekend in Charleston, South Carolina. The team of DJ Bryant, Ta'Vonna Dorsett, Faith Nicholson-Garcia and Lucas created and presented their restaurant concept called Southern Roots. The group did an excellent job sharing their menu, concept, operations and marketing plan in front of a national panel of judges. The team finished 11th overall in the nation and were excellent representatives of North Carolina and Cary High. Great job ProStart team!
