Thank you for your support of the Needham Broughton Capital Foundation Soiree on November 17th at CAM Raleigh! We're extending the individual ticket deadline to Thursday (11/10). Sponsorships will be available for purchase until the day of the event. As you know, Broughton now needs your help more than ever. We're at a critical juncture in terms of awaiting a new principal and looking to supplement declining public investments in education. The Foundation is a key player in helping provide enrichment opportunities that maintain Broughton's standard of excellence. So if you haven't yet purchased your Soiree ticket or sponsorship, please consider doing so by this Thursday. There's a wealth of information about the Soiree, including how to sponsor and/or purchase tickets online at NBHSCapitalFoundation.com. Please forward information about the event to anyone from the Broughton community who might be interested.

COMMUNITY SERVICE OPPORTUNITIES

Jeffreys Grove Elementary would like volunteers to help by reading to children or assisting with school technology. If you are interested in helping, please contact David Brooks, the Broughton Magnet Coordinator, in room 156, and he will put you in touch with the Jeffreys Grove Magnet Coordinator.

The Findlay YMCA in partnership with St Giles Church in Oak Park sponsor an after school program. We are looking for students to be tutors for the children we serve. The program serves Elementary students on Mondays and Wednesdays at Providence Baptist Church on Glenwood Ave. We serve Middle School students on Tuesdays and Thursdays at St Giles Church, off Oak Park Rd. The hours for Elementary students are 4:45 - 5:45, and 5:45: - 6:45. The hours for Middle School students are 4:30 - 5:30 and 5:30 - 6:30. Each tutor is requested to work for ONE HOUR PER WEEK with the same child. We are looking for a year long commitment. You must be at least 16 years old, and have the willingness to show up EVERY week, as we are looking for consistency for the children. You may select a day and time that are best suited to your schedule. If interested, contact Peggy Forster at 919-782-79

Looking for flexible after-school service hours in a place of encouragement and hope? Help local families transitioning from homelessness at The Green Chair Project. Sign up online whenever you need hours (open Tues-Fri, 10-5). No experience necessary ---greet visitors, process donations, or help with Front Desk closing duties. Only a 7 minute drive from BHS or take the Go Raleigh bus to the Greyhound stop on Capital Boulevard (Green Chair is across the street, next to the Salvation Army). For orientation information and to sign up, go to <http://www.volunteerspot.com/login/entry/1112345638957882069>

Broughton students are invited to apply for the 8th Annual Triangle Youth Leadership Conference (TYLC). The conference will be held at NC State University in Raleigh early next year. We are seeking motivated students in any high school grade to apply. The two-day conference will take place on NC State's campus from February 10th to February 11th. The conference will cost $110 per student. This cost includes lodging for one night and five meals. Check-in will start at 8:30am on Friday, and checkout will begin Saturday evening. TYLC is put on by Triangle Youth Leadership Services (TYLS). Based out of N.C. State University, we are a completely student-led organization of current Park Scholars and ambitious Wolfpack undergraduates dedicated to community development in North Carolina through youth leadership and empowerment. Students can apply to the conference through December 16th by visiting our website (<http://triangleleadership.com/tylc8>). For more information, contact us at triangleleadershipservices@gmail.com.

Jane Forde, former Broughton Humanities Instructor, will be chaperoning another group to Cuba during spring break. The dates are April 8- April 16 and include Havana, Vinales, Cienfuegos, Trinidad and Santa Clara, flying from RDU to Havana and back. If interested, please email Jane Forde at jfordebroughton@gmail.com.

Students who took the ASVAB test: There will be a score interpretation session on Tuesday, November 29 during CAPS class in the Auditorium. You will receive your scores at this time and will hear more about how to read and understand the results.

SOPHOMORES: Broughton has been asked to nominate one outstanding sophomore for the Hugh O'Brian Youth Leadership Seminar [HOBY]. HOBY, one of the oldest and most prominent youth leadership organizations in the world, was founded by actor Hugh O'Brian after returning from spending nine inspirational days working and volunteering with Dr. Albert Schweitzer, the 1952 Nobel Peace Prize Winner. Broughton's nominee will attend a HOBY Weekend Retreat on the campus of NCSU scheduled for June 16-18, 2017. Last year Broughton's HOBY Ambassador was Noah Sommers. Sophomores who would like to be considered for nomination should sign up in the Guidance Resource Center [Room 1209]. For more information about HOBY, visit www.hoby.org/students.

CATALYST CONFERENCE

Every year, the Catalyst Conference brings a select group of 100 high school students from across North Carolina to UNC-CH for a weekend-long exploration of social justice issues affecting both America and the larger world. Through leadership and personal development sessions, participants are empowered to serve as catalysts for positive change in their own communities. When: Friday, February 17 - Sunday, February 19

Where: UNC campus in Chapel Hill, NC

Cost : $50 registration fee to help with some of the costs of food and housing for the weekend. Please let us know if you have an interested student with financial need as we may be able to offer a scholarship.

Apply by: Saturday, November 26

The Christophers Annual High School Poster Contest is open to high school students in grades 9-12. Students may enter the competition and win scholarship money by creating a poster that relates to how "One Person Can Make A Difference." Each year, 8 students will be awarded scholarship money by creating a poster that relates to a specific theme; the theme changes each year. The contest gives students an opportunity to utilize their artistic talent, to be reminded that every student matters, and to win money that will help them pay for college. The Christophers is a Christian-based, non-profit organization founded in 1945 and is based on the premise that every individual is unique and can contribute something special to the world that will improve the lives of others. The organization is headquartered in New York. The deadline for this scholarship is February 27, 2017, and the award amount is usually $100 - $1,000. For more details, visit www.christophers.org/page.aspx?pid=274

College Jump Start Scholarship is held every year for high school students in grades 10 - 12, current college students, and non-traditional students. The scholarship can be used at any college the student wishes to attend. Eligibility requirements are for students to be planning to attend or currently attending a U.S., accredited 2-year, 4-year or vocational or trade school. Students must also be motivated to use their education in some way that will better their lives and their communities. When applying, students must answer an essay question regarding their career goals, how their education will help them attain those goals, or their experience with work or volunteering in their communities. The scholarship is sponsored by the College JumpStart Scholarship Fund in Los Altos, California. It is funded through corporate donations. The deadline for this scholarship is OCTOBER 17, 2016, and the award amount is usually $1,000. For more details, visit www.jumpstart-scholarship.net/

The Courageous Persuaders Program is a program in which high school students create television commercials targeted at middle school students to warn them about the dangers of alcohol use. The competition is open to all high school students --- not only those taking video production. Emphasis is placed on concept and the message, not on production values. The grand prize-winning commercial actually airs on TV as a public service announcement. Participants gain valuable experience, are honored in a Hollywood-style awards banquet and, most importantly, have an opportunity to save lives. For more information, go online at <http://courageouspersuaders.com/the-competition/>. February 9, 2017 deadline.

DAR's Christopher Columbus Essay Contest. The DAR sponsors this contest with the National Italian American foundation [NIAF] in honor of Christopher Columbus. Each academic year, an essay topic is chosen and contest instructions are made available online at <http://www.dar.org/natsociety/essays.cfm>. The contest is open to students in grades 9-12. One winning essay from each participating chapter is submitted for judging on the state level. Each state winner is judged on the divisional level and the divisional winners move on to the national level, where the winner is announced. The contest winner will receive $1,200 plus a trip to D.C. to present their essay at the Columbus Memorial on Columbus Day, Monday, October 12, 2015. For more information on the contest, please visit <http://www.dar.org/national-society/education/essay-contests>. . October deadline.

Applicants for The Don't Text and Drive Scholarship must be a high school freshman, sophomore, junior, or senior or a current or entering college or graduate school student of any level. Home schooled students are also eligible. There is no age limit. You must also be a U.S. citizen or legal resident. Applicants must complete the application form and write a 140-character message about texting while driving. The winner will receive a $1,000 scholarship! The due date for The Don't Text and Drive Scholarship is September 30, 2016, which coincides with September's No Texting while Driving Day. To apply, go online at <http://www.digitalresponsibility.org/dont-text-and-drive-scholarship/>.

The Doodle 4 Google scholarship is one of their most popular programs from the big G. This scholarship is open to students from Kindergarten to grade 12--students in elementary, middle, and high school are all eligible to apply! This scholarship is primarily an artistic competition--the winning student will receive a $30,000 college scholarship. And that is not all! In addition to the college scholarship, students will receive a $50,000 technology grant for their school! The application can be found online at <https://www.unigo.com/scholarships/all/doodle-4-google/1003922>. Deadline: December 7, 2016. .

Hunter Garner Scholarship. This is a scholarship competition called Project Yellow Light for high school students and college students. The competition involves producing a one minute video focused on encouraging friends to avoid distractions while driving. The scholarship is named after Hunter Garner from Fredericksburg, Virginia, who died at the age of 16 in an auto accident on June 10, 2007. Hunter's parents and sister established the scholarship to encourage more teens to develop safe driving habits. First-place winner receives a $5,000 scholarship, second-place is awarded a $2,000 scholarship, and a $1,000 scholarship goes to third place. In addition, the first-place winner will have their video distributed to 1,600 television stations throughout the nation as a Ad Council public service announcement. Videos can include one person, groups, a cartoon or a music video. Videos will be judged on how they effectively motivate young people to avoid distractions while driving. The contest opens October 31 and the deadline for this scholarship is usually in APRIL of each year, and the award amount is usually $1,000 - $5,000. For more details, visit www.projectyellowlight.com/

The JFK Profile in Courage Essay Contest is once again being offered to United States high school students in grades 9 through 12 attending public, private, parochial, or home schools. The first place winner will receive a $20,000 prize, a second place winner will receive $1,000, and up to 5 finalists will receive $500. This contest asks students to write an essay of 1,000 words or less on "a U.S. elected official who has chosen to do what is right, rather than what is expedient." Specifically, this year's entries must deal with the following prompt: Describe and analyze an act of political courage by a United States elected official that took place during or after 1956. Include an analysis of the obstacles, risks, and consequences associated with the act. The essay may concern an issue at the local, state, national, or international level. Essays will be accepted starting September 1, 2015, and the final submission deadline is January 4, 2017. For contest information, registration, and to submit your essay, visit the Profile in Courage Essay Contest at www.jfklibrary.org.

NCAC [National Coalition Against Censorship] Youth Free Expression Film Contest is open to high school students age 19 and under. Students can enter the contest by submitting a film that expresses their belief in their First Amendment rights and the issue of Free Speech. All entries are judged by writers, actors, and filmmakers and evaluated based on content, artistic and technical merit, and creativity. Films can be documentaries, animation, experimental, satire, fictional narrative, or music and must be four minutes or less. Applicants must be U.S. citizens. Three winners are chosen to receive cash prizes and a trip to New York City to attend the Youth Voices Uncensored event. The first-place winner also receives a scholarship to the New York Film Academy. Since 2005, the National Coalition Against Censorship (NCAC) has been rewarding youth for their outstanding work in film. The purpose of the film contest is to encourage youth to use film creatively to express their feelings about free speech. The theme for the 12th Annual Youth Free Expression Film Contest is "Watch What You #Tweet! How free should social media be?" The deadline for this scholarship is March 15, 2017, and the award amount is usually $250 - $5,000. For more details, visit ncac.org/project/film-contest/.

No Bull Sports Scholarship. No Bull Sports is a non-profit organization dedicated to uniting, educating, and empowering young women to reach their full potential. When we set out to build a community of female athletes from all walks of life, a cornerstone of our mission was to offer scholarships to deserving high school girls. No Bull Sports provides smart, trailblazing, talented young women the financial resources they need to achieve their academic and athletic goals. No Bull Sports is excited to award our inaugural scholarship of $5,000 in December 2016 to a deserving female high school sophomore, junior, or senior to pursue her academic and athletic goals. Writers of the Future-Science Fiction Writing Contest is open to high school students, college students and other new and amateur writers. Four awards are given each year for short stories or novelettes that are either science fiction or fantasy. Stories can be up to 17,000 words in length. All stories must be original work and represent stories that have not been previously published. Also, candidates must not have professionally published a novel or short novel, or more than one novelette, or more than three short stories. The Contest will award four prizes, which includes third, second and first place, plus a grand prize. Candidates may submit one story during each of the four quarters, beginning on October 1, January 1, April 1 and July 1, with the final submission date on September 30. The deadline for this scholarship is usually in SEPTEMBER of each year, and the award amount is usually $500 - $5,000.
