Students With Documented Disabilities: The College Board provides a broad range of accommodations to students with documented disabilities. Examples of accommodations include tests in Braille or large print, extra breaks between sections and extended testing time. Students who currently use accommodation in school, or have and Individual Education Program [IEP] or 504 Plan, are not automatically qualified for College Board testing accommodations. They still must apply for accommodations. Once the College Board reviews a request for accommodations, the student receives an eligibility letter. This letter indicates any approved accommodations and provides the student with a personal SSD Eligibility code that's valid throughout the student's high school career. Students who ever plan to take the PSAT, SAT, SAT Subject Tests, ACT or AP Tests should begin the process early. See Dean Sauls in Student Services immediately.

NEWS FROM THE WELL: The WELL Student Ambassadors is a student leadership club at the WELL. The goal of the club is to promote student involvement and participation at the WELL, Broughton High School, and the community. Club membership is open to Broughton students. Students meet at the WELL to share food, socialize and discuss ways to promote involvement at the WELL and the Broughton community. Applications may be obtained from the receptionist at the WELL or from Mr. Rudder in the Guidance Resource Center [Room 1209] .
