The National Association for College Admission Counseling invites Broughton sophomores, juniors and seniors to the National College Fair coming to Raleigh on Tuesday, March 14, 2017. The Fair will be held in the Raleigh Convention Center from 4:30-7:30 pm . It is free and open to the public. Admission representatives from hundreds of colleges and universities are available to speak with students one-on-one concerning the college admission process and college life in general. A list of participating colleges is available on line at <http://bit.ly/NCExhibitors>. Register FREE at www.nacacfairs.org/ncfstudentregistration to receive fair details, avoid lines onsite, and share your contact information with your choice schools.

Junior Girls: Tar Heel Girls State is a week-long practical study of the structure and operation of North Carolina State Government. The non-partisan program, held on the campus of Catawba College in Salisbury, NC, June 11-17, takes a hands-on approach to learning how state and local governments function. Tar Heel Girls State is sponsored by the NC Department of the American Legion Auxiliary. Participants must be a junior in high school [rising senior], and in the top third of their class academically. During the week citizens are grouped into cities and they organize their own local government, elect officers, prepare a city charter and conduct city activities. For more information, visit www.thgs.com.

Registration with Selective Service applies to virtually all men living in the United States, including immigrants, no matter their status. It's quick, easy, and it's the law. Even though men must register at 18 years old, they have the opportunity to submit their information as early as 17 years and 3 months. These registrations will be processed on their 18th birthday. They can either register with Selective Service on line at www.sss.gov or any U.S. post office. Students who fail to register are breaking the law. If prosecuted, they could be sent to prison for up to 5 years and may be fined up to $250.00. In addition, students who fail to register cannot qualify for federal student grants or loans for college, job training benefits, and many state and federal jobs.

Shelton Challenge Leadership Camps. The First-Year Shelton Challenge is a six-day summer experience for rising freshmen, sophomores, juniors, and seniors in high school. Shelton's five cornerstones of values-based leadership—honesty, integrity, compassion, diversity and social responsibility—are the foundations of the camp. The core curriculum focuses on Personal Leadership Assessment and Interpersonal Dynamics, Role of Values and Ethics in Leadership, Leadership Traits and Approaches, Teambuilding and Empowering Others, Social Responsibility, Public Speaking, and Goal Setting.

The First-Year Shelton Challenge seeks youth who are rising 9th through 12th graders with a 3.0 grade point average (unweighted) or higher. Students will get to experience residence hall living, eat meals at a campus dining hall, and use indoor and outdoor recreation facilities. Cost to attend the program is $700.00 for the week.

The Take II Shelton Challenge is a six-day camp for past Challenge graduates who are ready to use the foundation created from the first-year experience to build upon their own values-based leadership approach. Participants will dive deeper within the five Shelton Cornerstones to increase their level of leadership responsibility, conflict resolution, time management and decision making through hands-on project management. The camp will also focus on the following elements of leadership: how to build a team effectively; strategic visioning and planning; trustworthiness; loyalty; diversity and inclusion; public speaking; recognition; resource development; and leadership roles. Core leadership principles are addressed in the activities to help students discover their current style of leadership and their hidden leadership abilities. Reflection is a key component for each exercise and daily review. Students are placed in leadership roles and participate in a 360° evaluation conducted by the Coach, Mentor, Trainers (CMTs). Students will get to experience residence hall living, eat meals at a campus dining hall and use indoor and outdoor recreation facilities. Cost of program is $700.00 for the week.
