WCPS & Habitat for Humanity: The Wake County Public School System is participating in a "Building Together" project run by Habitat for Humanity. The Habitat for Humanity house will be built for one of our school system bus drivers, Roxanne Harris, and her family. The school system is working to raise $65,000 by March 24th. If you are interested in helping to donate to this exciting partnership, please visit the Habitat for Humanity link on the Broughton High School website under School News.

STUDENT ANNOUNCEMENTS [General]

BROUGHTON SPORTS UPDATE

Coach Jen Yoder's Girls Lacrosse team traveled to Wake Forest for a 16-1 win Thursday night. For the third consecutive game the Caps, now 3-0, were unchallenged by their opponent. The Broughton defense, led by senior Carson Harvey, almost pitched a shutout. Wake Forest scored with 2 seconds left in the game, their only goal of the night. On offense the Caps were led by Margaret Anne Warner with four goals, followed by Addie Camak and Carol Seigler with three each, Georgia Davis with two, and with one each Sydney Russell, EJ Fuller, Katie Childrey and Lily DiCaprio.

The National Association for College Admission Counseling invites Broughton sophomores, juniors and seniors to the National College Fair coming to Raleigh TODAY. The Fair will be held in the Raleigh Convention Center from 4:30-7:30 pm . It is free and open to the public. Admission representatives from hundreds of colleges and universities are available to speak with students one-on-one concerning the college admission process and college life in general. A list of participating colleges is available on line at <http://bit.ly/NCFExhibitors>. Register FREE at www.nacacfairs.org/ncfstudentregistration to receive fair details, avoid lines onsite, and share your contact information with your choice schools.

Students interested in a summer trip to France, please contact Ms. Parsons in room 1215. This is your chance to climb the Eiffel Tower, visit Normandy, see the Mona Lisa and lots more things French! There will be an informational meeting to follow in a week or so. This trip is open to all persons. Please respond ASAP to assure space will still be available. You may also call Beth Parsons @ 919-781-1717. Merci!

For the next three weekends four of our current Performing Arts students will be featured in the North Raleigh Arts and Creative Theatre's production of Jason Robert Brown's musical '13.' These students include Sterling Jones, Lauren Moore, Chloe Hulgan and Mia Dewitt. In addition, the production features Broughton Arts alum Bryan Bunch in the leading role as well. Our Drama teacher, Mr. Rainey and his wife, have had the privilege of directing this production and it is choreographed by our own Betsy Graves. You can order tickets online at <http://www.nract.org/shows#/tickets/>.

Data on the Fly! is an exciting one-day STEM immersion program at RDU airport for high school students on Friday, April 21, 2017. The event is produced by SAS Institute in collaboration with the NC Department of Transportation and the North Carolina Science Festival. Selected students will have the opportunity to tour the air traffic control tower, build a flight data collection device, test their device using real-time data from incoming and outgoing aircraft, and analyze their data alongside SAS professionals. For more information and to apply, visit <https://docs.google.com/forms/d/e/1FAIpQLScl6RDlkbArNJ0oGgUZ-VaeNX7GnZE4KydTurzF2SH-RPOWhw/viewform?c=0&w=1>.

If you took the February ASVAB test, please plan to attend the interpretation session which will be held on Tuesday, March 21 during CAPS class in the auditorium. You will report directly to the auditorium after your 1st period class and do not need to check in with your CAPS teacher. It is at this interpretation session where you will receive your score and learn more about how to understand the results. Please contact Ms. Davis (rdavis9@wcpss.net) with any questions.

Are you a high school sophomore or junior interested in the environment? If so, join us for this exciting 1-day event and discover how our majors in the College of Natural Resources (CNR) address environmental challenges using science, technology, and engineering. What happens at Environmental Exploration Day

- Engage in hands-on activities directly related to CNR majors*
- Attend a CNR Majors Fair to explore environmentally-focused career paths

- Meet, interact, and have lunch with current students
- Learn about the admissions process and requirements

- Sit on panels about Preparing for College and Writing a Great Application

Majors we will be exploring include Fisheries, Wildlife, and Conservation Biology; Forest Management; Natural Resources-Ecosystem Assessment; Natural Resources-Policy and Administration; Environmental Technology and Management; Sustainable Materials and Technology; Paper Science & Engineering; and Parks, Recreation, and Tourism Management. Students can apply online <https://docs.google.com/forms/d/e/1FAIpQLSe1FwMBW7bKKWCRw4iz2KdL3yDEBwIw7ckUsDiFPoWxGsDoLg/viiewform> through March 17. Students will be notified within one week of their acceptance. Accepted students are not confirmed until they pay the $20 registration fee or make other arrangements.

The North Carolina Community Development Initiative invites applications from rising high school seniors for paid internships for its Youth Leadership Program. This program introduces students to the nonprofit sector and careers related to leadership and community economic development. The five-week internship is scheduled from June 15 to July 28 and the stipend is $2,250. Selected students will have three overnight sessions, including closing ceremony, youth leadership development training, and mentorship in the Research Triangle Park area. Applications must be submitted by March 31, 2017. All promotional and application materials are available online at www.ncinitiative.org. Selections and placement will be announced on or before May 1, 2017.

Did you know that high school students can take college courses and earn FREE college credits while still in high school?! Career and College Promise, or CCP, allows eligible high school students to take college courses at Wake Tech. It's sometimes referred to as dual enrollment. Students interested in taking a Career College Promise course in the Fall 2017 are required to attend an information session prior to registering for a course. For more information about the CCP program, and to register for the required information session, visit the CCP website at www.waketech.edu/career-and-college-promise or email ccp@waketech.edu. Specific questions about the program should be directed to Michelle Lair, our CCP school contact. Her email is mclair@waketech.edu and her phone number is 919-866-5425.

Enjoy working with animals? Explore your interest in working with animals by taking part in a career camp at SeaWorld Orlando this summer. Work along side an experienced staff and learn about amazing animal careers. Swim with a dolphin, snorkel with sharks, prepare a penguin-sized lunch, touch a stingray and make friendships that will last a lifetime. Visit www.SeaWorldOrlando.com/Education to learn more.

Junior Girls: Tar Heel Girls State is a week-long practical study of the structure and operation of North Carolina State Government. The non-partisan program, held on the campus of Catawba College in Salisbury, NC, June 11-17, takes a hands-on approach to learning how state and local governments function. Tar Heel Girls State is sponsored by the NC Department of the American Legion Auxiliary. Participants must be a junior in high school [rising senior], and in the top third of their class academically. During the week citizens are grouped into cities and they organize their own local government, elect officers, prepare a city charter and conduct city activities. For more information, visit www.thgs.com.

Registration for Duke Splash Spring 2017 opens 2/19! The date of the event is March 25 and will take place in various buildings across Duke West Campus. Duke Splash is a once a semester program for students in grades 7-12 to learn about any of the courses being offered. The classes that are being offered vary in subject drastically to accommodate for any student's interests. Past classes include "Pokemon 101", "Learn to solve your first Rubik's Cube", "Theory of Special Relativity", and many more fun classes! If you desire to see the full list of classes being offered, please visit the website that will be posted at the bottom of the email. Each class is taught by a Duke student that is passionate about their subject. It is truly an incredible opportunity for students to learn anything they are interested about! To register, visit <https://dukesplash.learningu.org/learn/index.html>

Women of Distinction is a program offered at Smith College [MA] for high school seniors that highlights the opportunities at Smith for African American, Latina, Asian American, and Native American students. Admission is competitive. Smith will provide round-trip transportation, meals and accommodations for all participants. Applications will be available on Monday, May 1, 2017 and the deadline to apply is Friday, June 16. The program will take place on October 20-22, 2017. Junior girls interested in applying are asked to see Mr. Rudder in the Guidance Resource Center.

This conference will be held at Southeast Raleigh High School on March 17, 2017 and is open to all 9th to 12th grade girls in Wake County. SHE Leads 2017 will begin with a dynamic speaker, Yolonda Rabun, and have breakout sessions as well as a college fair during the lunch hour. Yolanda Rabun will speak on "Finding Your Voice," and our breakout sessions are on diverse topics including women in careers (e.g. medicine, law, and small business), interests (such as politics, branding, health and fitness), and "adulting" (which includes information about scholarships, organization, networking, and a session called "College 101: Beyond the Textbook). The Conference will begin at 8:30 AM and end by 1:15 PM.

The Wake County Public School System's Future Teacher Program is a recruitment initiative aimed at developing WCPSS's internal student talent. Future Teacher Participants are WCPSS high school graduates who intend to pursue careers in education and who will commit to teaching with WCPSS for a minimum of 3 years upon completion of their teacher preparation programs. Future teachers receive annual summer professional development stipends beginning the summer following the freshman year of college. They also receive a job offer for a teaching position for which they are licensed and qualified. Application materials will be available beginning February 6 and may be submitted February 13 –March 31. If interested, see your counselor for application materials.

COMMUNITY SERVICE OPPORTUNITIES

COMMUNITY SERVICE REMINDERS:

- Underclassmen community service hours are due by May 5. In order to be "up to date" with community service hours, they must be turned in by this date. Students who are not current or "up to date" with community service hours may not qualify the next year for "off campus lunch pass", homecoming court, etc.
- All community service hours must be done for a Non-profit organization.
- Fletcher Park clean up and data collection. TODAY, 1 pm to 5 pm. Park clean up and data collection on types of litter in the park, graffiti or other nuisances. Sponsor: Rachel Kincaid. Registration required at RachelCKincaid@gmail.com. 4 hours earned.
- Anti-litter video creation. TODAY, 1 pm to 5 pm. Work with a group to create a video that addresses the effects of litter on a community. Sponsor: Rachel Kincaid. Registration required at RachelCKincaid@gmail.com. 4 hours earned.
- Volunteers are needed at the 2017 NC Science & Engineering Fair [NCSEF] scheduled on the Meredith College campus March 24-25. Sign up as a General or Specialty Volunteer. If you have volunteer questions or need information email ncsefvolunteers@gmail.com.

University Park Homeowners Association non-profit (neighborhood located west of Oberlin Rd. and East of Faircloth St.) needs 4-6 teens to help with our annual Easter Egg Hunt, Saturday morning, April 8, 2017, volunteer duties from 9:30-11:30am, at Pollock Place Park 3226 Merriman Ave. at the corner of Pollock and Merriman in University Park. The location is near Meredith College. The free event is open to all children and families in our area. We plan for about 80-100 people. There will be several adult volunteers supervising tasks for teen volunteers which would include: hiding Easter eggs in the park as guests arrive, assistance setting up snack tables, playing with children, and encouraging use of trash cans throughout the party. At the close of the event at 11:00am volunteers would help pick up any remaining trash/food/eggs and place in trash cans, and assist adult volunteers loading the car with a few things from the party - a card table, a banner, supplies, etc. All should be completed by 11:30am. Earn 2 hours of community service. There is no rain date. Contact: Megan Hollander at 919-880-4797 or at TheDaytimewall@gmail.com if you wish to serve.

Want to help women and children in the Triangle Area? Assistance League of the Triangle Area (www.altriangle.org) is an all-volunteer organization dedicated to improving the lives of women and children through several programs including Operation School Bell® which gives new clothing and school supplies to school children. The A-Z Thrift Shop, our primary source of funds, needs volunteers to assist with picking up/delivering furniture and household items to our shop year round Mondays between 9:30am-12:30 pm and some Sunday afternoons. If interested in volunteering, please contact the coordinator via email: laureta.holloway@me.com. All volunteers receive documentation of hours served.

The Carolina For The Kids Foundation needs student volunteers at their annual UNC Dance Marathon this March 24th & 25th. Volunteering at the Marathon is a great way to get required service hours while having lots of fun with other students. Volunteers can choose to be a motivator or a volunteer. Motivators participate in a 6-hour shift at the UNC Dance Marathon and are required to raise $40. They cheer on students who have pledged to stand for 24 hours and help make sure the Marathon is running smoothly. Volunteers are required to raise $20 and participate by helping with the set up for the Marathon which is scheduled for the evening of Thursday, March 31 from 5-8pm. All motivators & volunteers receive a t-shirt during the Marathon. If interested, contact Linnea Jurs at linneasj@live.unc.edu.

Hayes Barton Baptist Church Children's Consignment Sale needs volunteers. Hayes Barton Baptist Church is located at 1600 Glenwood Ave. (Five Points intersection) The sale dates are March 16-18 but we especially need volunteers on Saturday, March 18 from 1-5. The jobs include the breakdown of equipment used during sale, sorting and returning all unsold items to the consignors. This shift is perfect for teenagers looking for service hours. After the sale, a portion of unsold clothes, toys and equipment are donated to local organizations who serve children throughout Wake County. If you are interested in volunteering, please contact Betty Boyce at bettboyce@gmail.com or 919-740-8337.

The A.E.Finley YMCA, in partnership with St Giles Church in Oak Park, sponsor an after school program and need students to volunteer as tutors. The program serves elementary students on Mondays and Wednesdays at Providence Baptist Church on Glenwood Avenue and serves middle school students on Tuesdays and Thursdays at St. Giles Church off Oak Park Rd. The hours for elementary students are 4:45 - 5:45, and 5:45 - 6:45. The hours for middle school students are 4:30 - 5:30, and 5:30 - 6:30. Each tutor is expected to work for ONE HOUR PER WEEK with the same child and willing to make a commitment thru the end of the school year. Student volunteers must be at least 16 years old, and be responsible about showing up EVERY week. You may select a day and time that are best suited to your schedule. If interested contact Peggy Forster at pegfors@yahoo.com of call 919-782-0279.

Jeffreys Grove Elementary would like volunteers to help by reading to children or assisting with school technology. If you are interested in helping, please contact David Brooks, the Broughton Magnet Coordinator, in room 156, and he will put you in touch with the Jeffreys Grove Magnet Coordinator.

Looking for flexible after-school service hours in a place of encouragement and hope? Help local families transitioning from homelessness at The Green Chair Project. Sign up online whenever you need hours (open Tues-Fri, 10-5). No experience necessary ---greet visitors, process donations, or help with Front Desk closing duties. Only a 7 minute drive from BHS or take the Go Raleigh bus to the Greyhound stop on Capital Boulevard (Green Chair is across the street, next to the Salvation Army). For orientation information and to sign up, go to <http://www.volunteerspot.com/login/entry/1112345638957882069>

Shelton Challenge Leadership Camps. The First-Year Shelton Challenge is a six-day summer experience for rising freshmen, sophomores, juniors, and seniors in high school. Shelton's five cornerstones of values-based leadership—honesty, integrity, compassion, diversity and social responsibility—are the foundations of the camp. The core curriculum focuses on Personal Leadership Assessment and Interpersonal Dynamics, Role of Values and Ethics in Leadership, Leadership Traits and Approaches, Teambuilding and Empowering Others, Social Responsibility, Public Speaking, and Goal Setting.

The First-Year Shelton Challenge seeks youth who are rising 9th through 12th graders with a 3.0 grade point average (unweighted) or higher. Students will get to experience residence hall living, eat meals at a campus dining hall, and use indoor and outdoor recreation facilities. Cost to attend the program is $700.00 for the week.

The Take II Shelton Challenge is a six-day camp for past Challenge graduates who are ready to use the foundation created from the first-year experience to build upon their own values-based leadership approach. Participants will dive deeper within the five Shelton Cornerstones to increase their level of leadership responsibility, conflict resolution, time management and decision making through hands-on project management. The camp will also focus on the following elements of leadership: how to build a team effectively; strategic visioning and planning; trustworthiness; loyalty; diversity and inclusion; public speaking; recognition; resource development; and leadership roles. Core leadership principles are addressed in the activities to help students discover their current style of leadership and their hidden leadership abilities. Reflection is a key component for each exercise and daily review. Students are placed in leadership roles and participate in a 360° evaluation conducted by the Coach, Mentor, Trainers (CMTs). Students will get to experience residence hall living, eat meals at a campus dining hall and use indoor and outdoor recreation facilities. Cost of program is $700.00 for the week.
