BROUGHTON SPORTS UPDATE

The boy's tennis team hosted their final home match of the season vs. Enloe Monday afternoon. The Eagles won 9-0. The Cap's Men's Golf team completed an undefeated season in the Cap 8 Conference winning the final conference match of the year at Wildwood Green Golf Course. The Caps finished with a total score of 145 (5 over par) topping second place Heritage by 15 shots and third place Enloe by 22 shots. The Caps return to action today at the Pinecrest Invitational at Pinehurst # 8.

Volunteers are needed to help out during the 4th of July event in downtown Raleigh. We will have a roller skating rink as part of the festivities and will need volunteers to help set up and break down the rink for the event. Volunteers are encouraged to stay and enjoy the event. They will need to be available from 10am to 12pm and 10pm to 11pm for set up and tear down before and after the event. This is a great opportunity for community service hours and volunteer hours. If interested, contact Jasmine Keadle at Jasmine.Keadle@raleighconvention.com.

Transportation and the North Carolina Science Festival. Selected students will have the opportunity to tour the air traffic control tower, build a flight data collection device, test their device using real-time data from incoming and outgoing aircraft, and analyze their data alongside SAS professionals. In collaboration with Global H2O, a local non-profit founded by a Broughton alumni, Broughton students are planning and fundraising for the second ever Walk For Water. Taking place on April 29th, The Walk For Water is a 2 mile walk on the Broughton track with the purpose of raising money and awareness for safe water access. Many women in Africa and Asia must walk an average of about 3.7 miles to bring water to their families, so by walking 2 miles we will be trying to experience the daily journey just to a water source. The fundraising goal is $7,500 in order to fund a well that will be constructed in Uganda.

STUDENT ANNOUNCEMENTS [JUNIOR & SENIORS]

Seniors Interested in Law Enforcement Careers: Blue Lights College in Apex is offering a tuition-free law enforcement program for our inaugural two-year class starting in Fall 2017! We have a full two-year course curriculum (75% online and 25% in-person) that consists of classes in law enforcement, communications studies, and sociology. Our students will be heavily involved in the community, working with local police departments to solve current community problems, performing culturally-specific community service, and learning about what it means to be an upstanding citizen. Our students will graduate with a Basic Law Enforcement Training (BLET) Certificate from Wake Tech. Enrollment started April 1st; we're aiming for an inaugural class of 100 students when classes begin on August 28th. We will also give our students the opportunity to compete against NJCAA, Division II, and Division III teams in Men's and Women's Basketball, Men's Wrestling, and Women's Volleyball. We have a full coaching staff and are actively recruiting athletes. Students interested in the program should visit www.bluelightscollege.org or contact Christina Guichard (cguichard@bluelightscollege.org) for more information.

JUNIOR GIRLS: Broughton has been asked to recommend junior girls for the Debutante Program sponsored by Alpha Kappa Alpha Sorority. The Program offers scholarships, awards, activities and opportunities for young women to further develop their educational, cultural and social skills. Participants are selected based on moral character, ethical values and potential to further education beyond high school. Female students who would like to be recommended should see Mr. Rudder in the Guidance Resource Center. The 2017 Program will conclude in November Of 2017 with the presentation of the chosen young ladies to society. In addition, the participants will be recognized at a special graduation celebration in July of 2018. Deadline: April 28, 2017.

The North Carolina Association of County Commissioners is offering all NC high school students an opportunity to win up to $1,000 in academic awards and to raise awareness of issues that impact your local community. Students [or a team of students] must plan a topic to promote – either “My County” or “Mental Health & High School Students” and compose a Pechakucha-style presentation. Three finalists will win $500 and will present their work at the 2017 NCAACC Annual Conference, held August 10-12 in Durham County. One winning project [as voted on by county commissioners] will win an additional $500. For details on the contest and to enter, visit www.NCACCC.org/Civics-Challenge by May 1, 2017.

Shelton Challenge Leadership Camps. The First-Year Shelton Challenge is a six-day summer experience for rising freshmen, sophomores, juniors, and seniors in high school. Shelton's five cornerstones of values-based leadership—honesty, integrity, compassion, diversity and social responsibility—are the foundations of the camp. The core curriculum focuses on Personal Leadership Assessment and Interpersonal Dynamics, Role of Values and Ethics in Leadership, Leadership Traits and Approaches, Teambuilding and Empowering Others, Social Responsibility, Public Speaking, and Goal Setting.

The First-Year Shelton Challenge seeks youth who are rising 9th through 12th graders with a 3.0 grade point average (unweighted) or higher. Students will get to experience residence hall living, eat meals at a campus dining hall, and use indoor and outdoor recreation facilities. Cost to attend the program is $700.00 for the week.

The Take II Shelton Challenge is a six-day camp for past Challenge graduates who are ready to use the foundation created from the first-year experience to build upon their own values-based leadership approach. Participants will dive deeper within the five Shelton Cornerstones to increase their level of leadership responsibility, conflict resolution, time management and decision making through hands-on project management. The camp will also focus on the following elements of leadership: how to build a team effectively; strategic visioning and planning; trustworthiness; loyalty; diversity and inclusion; public speaking; recognition; resource development; and leadership roles. Core leadership principles are addressed in the activities to help students discover their current style of leadership and their hidden leadership abilities. Reflection is a key component for each exercise and daily review. Students are placed in leadership roles and participate in a 360° evaluation conducted by the Coach, Mentor, Trainers (CMTs). Students will get to experience residence hall living, eat meals at a campus dining hall and use indoor and outdoor recreation facilities. Cost of program is $700.00 for the week.
