Good Evening Eagle Parents, this is Dr. Chavis, the Proud Principal of the William G. Enloe Magnet High School calling with your weekly update:

Congratulations to the 14 scholars of Enloe who were recognized as National Merit Scholarship Semi-Finalists. This is a huge honor and accolade. We wish these students the best of luck as their progress through the next round.

Congratulations to Ms. Elizabeth McCollum, our Orchestra Teacher as she will be awarded the Jackson Parkhurst Award for Special Achievement at the October 8 NC Symphony Performance. This is a prestigious honor and we are very happy and proud of Ms. McCollum for this recognition.

Last week was Arts Education Week. We thank the many teachers of our Arts Education Department for their commitment, devotion and dedication for the many hours in which they provide to our student musicians, actors, dancers, artists and performers! We are very fortunate to have such a strong and amazing team of educators in our Arts Department.

This Friday is College Apparel Friday and we are asking all students to dress in their favorite college gear. Teachers and administrators, are too, tasked with wearing college gear on Friday! Show your school (college) spirit!

Please check our website for events throughout the week. Follow us on Twitter and on facebook @EnloeMagnetHS
