

WHAT ARE THE PARTS OF THE FLOWER?

1. Will need to use the power point found www.primaryresources.co.uk/online/powerpoint/flower.ppt
2. Will need a flower from a plant of your choice (the larger the flower the better).

Questions:

1. What are the four main parts of a flowering plant?
2. What is the function each of the four main parts?
3. What is the name of the “female” portion of the flower? What is the name of the “male” portion of the flower?
4. What are the parts of the carpel?
5. Using www.dictionary.com define each part of the carpel.
6. What are the parts of the stamen?
7. Using www.dictionary.com define each part of the stamen.
8. Draw a diagram of your flower and attach it to this assignment.

PART TWO USES <http://www.teachingandlearningresources.co.uk/floweringplants.ppt>

1. What are the four parts of a flower?
2. What does each of the four parts do?
3. What does this website give for the definition of an Anther?
4. This web site calls the female reproductive part of the flower the pistil (the other website calls it the carpel). Both terms are used interchangeably.
5. What do flowering plants use to transfer pollen (the process of pollination)?
6. How do fruits form?
7. How do animals help with seed dispersal?