

American History Chapter 18: The New Deal 1932 – 1941

9.05: Assess the impact of New Deal reforms in enlarging the role of the federal government in American life.

9.03: Analyze the significance of social, intellectual, and technological changes of lifestyles in the U.S.

9.02: Analyze the extent of prosperity for different segments of society during this period.

In this chapter you will learn how the New Deal and Franklin D. Roosevelt met the challenges of the Great Depression. You will learn how the President provides hope to all Americans, what programs were undertaken to turn the American economy around, What the effects of the new programs and government intervention had on the American people and you will be shown what the culture of America was in the 1930's.

Section 1: FDR Offers Relief and Recovery:

- Use the web links or your textbook to define the following: fireside chat, TVA, CCC, NRA, Eleanor Roosevelt
- Create a graphic organizer as shown on page 600 to assist you as you read through the section noting the problems faced by FDR and his polices in meeting them
- Analyze the impact Franklin D. Roosevelt had on the American people after becoming President

Section 2: The Second New Deal

- Use the web links or your textbook to define the following: John Maynard Keynes, pump priming, sit-down strikes, collective bargaining, Social Security Act
- Make a table like the one shown on page 608 showing the problems and solutions of the Second New Deal
- Discuss the programs of social and economic reform in the second New Deal

Section 3: Effects of the New Deal:

- Use the web links or your textbook to define the following: Mary McLeod Bethune, Black Cabinet, welfare state
- Create a graphic organizer like the one found on page 616 to identify the lasting effects of the New Deal upon American society
- Describe how the New Deal affected different groups in American society

Section 4: Culture of the 1930's:

- Use the web links or your textbook to define the following: The Wizard of Oz, War of the Worlds, Federal Art Project, John Steinbeck
- Complete the table shown on page 626 to record examples of cultural or popular media
- Trace the growth of radio and the movies in the 1930's and the changes in popular culture