

The Collaboration Cycle

An Instructional Conversation Focusing on Student Learning Needs

Implementation of the Action Research Cycle

ACTION RESEARCH is what teachers consistently learn and do to meet student needs.

- Action Research is disciplined inquiry which leads to changes in practice and improved student performance
- Teacher engages in action research around student needs.

Based on Carlene Murphy's Whole Faculty Study Groups