

To promote personal growth and leadership development through Family and Consumer Sciences Education. Focusing on the multiple roles of family member, wage earner and community leader, members develop skills for life through: character development; creative and critical thinking; interpersonal communication; practical knowledge, and career preparation.

FCCLA has now entered the second phase of gathering information as part of our ongoing strategic planning efforts. As a key member of the FCCLA family, we invite your input. Your opinions and points of view—your “wants and wishes” for the future will be shared with the Task Force. This is the next step in creating the Ultimate Leadership Experience. Thank you in advance for your many “wishes.”
