

Health Occupations Education
Instructional Guide for New Teachers
July, 2008

Purpose -----

This guide was developed to assist "new" Health Occupations Education teachers in managing a secondary Health Occupations Education program.

Acknowledgements -----

The original Instructional Guide For New Teachers was developed by Kim Smith, former Health Occupations Consultant at NCDPI. Contributors were Dr. June Atkinson, Director of Instructional Services, NCDPI; Dr. Beverly Richards, former Associate Professor at NC State University.

Due to the overwhelming positive response to this manual, revisions and updates have been made and distributed to new Health Occupations teachers each year. A special thanks goes to Debbie Wagner, Visiting Instructor, NCSU Distance Learning Program and Elaine Rabon, current instructor for the New Teacher Clinic, 2008-2009 for their contributions to these updates and revisions.
