MS. NEWHOUSE

Hello! My name is Laurie Newhouse and I love teaching first grade. I was born and raised in New York. I have a son named Joey and a daughter named Lindsey. I really enjoy traveling, meeting new people and seeing new places. I traveled to Uganda in 2018 and volunteered as a teacher trainer. I hope to go back there one day. When I am not teaching I really enjoy spending time with my family and doing things outside. I love going to the mountains and the beach. I love collecting children's books. My dream is to write a children's book.
