

Meet the Teacher

Ms. Amy Self

Mrs. Self was born in Port of Spain, Trinidad but grew up in Cookeville - a small town outside of Nashville, Tennessee. She spent four years teaching elementary school in Clarksville, Tennessee before moving to Jacksonville Beach, Florida. During her seven years in Florida, she continued her love for working in the elementary classroom. She is now thrilled to call North Carolina and Wake County home.

Outside of school, Mrs. Self delights in spending time with her husband and their two dogs. Her favorite activities include spending time on the lake with family and friends, watching college football.

Education

Mrs. Self earned a bachelor's degree in Multidisciplinary Studies - Elementary Education from Tennessee Technological University.

Hopes and Dreams

I hope to encourage all those around me while cultivating a community of life-long learners.

I hope to live each day intentionally as I build relationships with students, families, and staff - going beyond expectations - to grow as a person and, more specifically, as an educator.
