School Highlights

Rolesville High School, established in 2013, is one of 30 high schools within the Wake County Public School System. Rolesville High is a comprehensive public high school that offers a traditional curriculum based on the North Carolina Essential Standards, with a Freshman Academy and a CTE Academy for Digital Arts and Project Management. The Rolesville community is a rapidly growing area composed of multi-suburban and small town, rural families. The town of Rolesville borders the capital city of Raleigh, Wake Forest, and Youngsville (Franklin County). Rolesville High School is a $73 million state-of-the-art, 21st Century designed structure. In 2013, the school opened with only 9th and 10th graders. In 2014, Rolesville High School added the first 11th grade class bringing the student enrollment total to 1170, which included the plan of adding a new class of students each year.
