

Rose is well deserving of the OPM! She is consistently cheering on the success of her classmates as well as showing ownership and pride in her own work. She is an excellent role model and an example of a student who exemplifies the Other People Matter Mindset. She is excited for others, claps for her friends as they share their work and welcomes new perspectives from her classmates. She demonstrates a love of learning all throughout the school day, no matter what we are learning, she will raise her hand and share "I just love school Mrs. White!" Her enthusiasm and positive energy is infectious not only to her peers, but her teachers as well! Thank you for being such a light in our classroom Rose, I am so proud of you!
