ANNIE | It's a Hard-Knock Life, Ladies and Gentlemen. The East Wake High School Theatre Department will be presenting ANNIE the weekend before Thanksgiving. Bring your family out for pre-holiday fun Friday & Saturday, November 22nd & 23rd at 6pm. Adult Tickets are $10 and student and children's tickets will be sold for $5. Students who are in the tech crew should report to rehearsal this week.

HOSA | HOSA meeting at 2:30pm on Nov. 14th in the media center. Topics of discussion: Christmas Parade, Toy drive, State Competition, and Veteran Cards. Please plan to attend.

FFA November Meeting | Come tell FFA what you're thankful for at our Nov chapter meeting on Nov 19 at 6pm in room 1306. We would love everyone to bring their favorite Thanksgiving food to share. You can sign up on the board by the ag rooms. See you there!

ASVAB | 10th-12th graders interested in taking the ASVAB on November 19th may now sign up in Students Services, the Media Center or on Mrs. Coble's office door. Students should only sign up at ONE location only.

December Driver Education Class | We are now accepting applications for the December driver education class. Please see Mr. Fister in room 1311 or student services to receive or submit an application.

CTE Internships | Juniors or Seniors who are interested in a Spring CTE Internship within a Pathway or Career Cluster, please see Mrs. Coble to make an appointment for a Pre-Conference. CTE Internships offer students hands on experience in their field of interest while also earning course credit. Please see Mrs. Coble for more information or email her at kcoble@wcpss.net. Interns must have excellent attendance, a strong GPA, a positive attitude, willingness to learn, and be able to provide their own transportation. Applications may be picked up from Mrs. Coble in 2223. The deadline has been extended to November 15th.
