

East Wake High School

Daily Announcements – November 5, 2018

College visit from Campbell University | A representative from Campbell University will be on campus today at 10:45 am. Sign up in Student Services.

Senior baby pictures and quotes | Seniors, we are still taking baby pictures and quotes. Please get those into the yearbook staff (room 159) by the end of the week.

ASVAB is this Wednesday! | Attention Students, please remember that the ASVAB will be administered this week on November 7th in the Media Center. Students should report directly to the Media Center Wednesday morning for testing. Thank you!

Project Warrior: 4 Ever Thankful | The weekend before Thanksgiving, Drama Club has a feast for you! Come see the 4th Annual Project Warrior: 4 Ever Thankful. This interactive showcase is $3 for admission OR bring 3 canned goods to donate to Hurricane Florence survivors for free admission. If you would like to participate, please see Miss Hinnant by Friday after school in the Theater.

Army visit day | The US Army will be visiting campus on Wednesdays during lunch. If you have any questions about the ASVAB exam or opportunities offered by the US Army please contact Sgt. Evan Woods at 919-264-0068.

Yearbooks on sale | Yearbooks are currently $60 plus tax ($65) through Nov. 26th. See Ms Anderson in room 159 or go to jostensyearbooks.com.

Duke Energy visiting East Wake | In the electrical utility industry, Lineworkers are similar to front line soldiers in the military. They are the boots on the ground performing very specialized work on the infrastructure which actually delivers electricity to customers...such as utility poles, transformers and towers. East Wake High is pleased to welcome Duke Energy on November 27th. Juniors and Seniors interested in a career with Duke Energy and/or learning more about the industry should see Mrs. Coble to obtain a pass to the event, which will be held during 3rd and 4th blocks. Teachers interested in bringing a class should contact Mrs. Coble via email.

Zebulon Times seeking intern | The Zebulon Times is seeking a mature Junior or Senior who has a passion for writing copy for their local newspaper. Students would ideally demonstrate excellent writing skills and show interest in current events in our community and at East Wake High School. The student may also enjoy photography and design. The student may be able to earn school credit for this Internship experience. Please see Mrs. Coble or email her at kcoble@wcpss.net if interested.

EWHS Career Development Webpage | Please visit the East Wake High School Career Development Webpage at www.eastwakehighschoolcdc.weebly.com

Health Career Days on the Hill | Health Careers Day on the Hill is one of NC-HCAP's largest events we host on UNC's campus! NC-HCAP's mission is to increase the number of students that are educated, trained and practicing in the health professions. Health Careers Day on the Hill welcomes over 200 high school students who are interested in the health professions to exposure of various health pathways. Health Careers Day on the Hill Partners include all of UNC's Health Science Schools, NCCU Bio Manufacturing Research Institute and Technology, UNC Office of Undergraduate Admissions, and NC State College of Veterinary Medicine. This event is hosted in the Fall and Spring. This semester, the event will be hosted on Saturday November 10, 2018 in the UNC School of Medicine from 10:00AM to 5:00PM. The cost is $30 per student. Registration is at
