Release of Student Information to Military Recruiters, Institutions of Higher Learning, and Other Third Parties Opt-Out Form

Parents and guardians have the right to opt-out of sharing directory information. More information about your FERPA rights may be viewed at this link: <https://www2.ed.gov/policy/gen/guid/fpco/ferpa/index.html>

Schools use directory information to publish items such as yearbooks, honor roll, newsletters, and graduation announcements. This also includes information about opportunities for scholarship programs and colleges to be sent to you.

Directory information may include student's name, address, telephone number, date and place of birth, participation in officially recognized activities and sports. A school may disclose directory information to third parties, for non-commercial use only (military, colleges, etc.).

Schools will never sell information to third parties for commercial purposes. Directory information will only be used for official purposes and to colleges and universities if you so choose.
