

September 27, 2020

Dear Wildcat Families,

Please see below our updates for this week. As always, thanks for partnering with us to Engage, Educate, and Empower the Wildcat Way!

Remote Learning Days/Teacher Workdays: September 29th and 30th

This week, teachers will prepare asynchronous instructional activities for students on Tuesday September 29th and Wednesday September 30th. Students will be counted present on these Remote Learning days by submitting assignments in Google Classroom and/or Seesaw. As a reminder, there will be no live instruction on these days.

Thank A Teacher!

*"We must find time to stop and thank the people who make a difference in our lives."
- John F. Kennedy*

The first quarter of the 2020-2021 school year is almost over and it has been filled with many exciting moments! Although the start of the school year has been very different, the teachers and staff at Wilburn Elementary have worked to ensure that students receive high-quality, rigorous, and engaging learning opportunities. Please take a moment to share a positive message with your child's teacher and express your gratitude here.

Update Regarding Reopening School Campuses

This week, the Wake County Board of Education was provided an update regarding the reopening of school campuses for students who have opted for Plan B. The district is proposing a target date of Oct. 26 for students who have opted for Plan B to return to in-person instruction. The reopening proposal could receive final approval as soon as Sept. 29th, Read more here.

Technology Support for Parents and Students

We encourage parents to visit wcpss.net/techguides for technology support. The resources on this site show students how to log in to their Wake IDs and student email, how to set up and use Chromebooks and Internet hotspots, how to connect to WiFi, how to use learning systems such as Google Classroom and Canvas, and much more. You can also find contact information for our help desk. Read more here- Guides with Key 8.18.20
