

In addition to stoles for recognizing Latin Honors distinctions, students in the following nationally recognized honor societies may wear their respective cords at Graduation on June 14:

Organization	Designation
French Honor Society	red/white/blue cord
International Thespian Society	royal blue/gold double cord with medallion
National Achievers Society	black/cold double cord
National Art Honor Society	red/orange/yellow/green/blue/purple cord
National Honor Society	silver stole
National Honor Society for Dance Arts	light blue/white cord
National Technical Honor Society	purple/silver cord
Science National Honor Society	blue/gold cord with gold tassel
Spanish Honor Society	gold/red cord
Tri-M Music Honor Society	pink cord

In addition to stoles for recognizing Latin Honors distinctions, students in the following school-based, nationally recognized honor societies may wear their respective cords at the Senior Awards Ceremony on May 23:

Organization	Designation
African Student Association	black/gold intertwined cord
Asian Student Association	white/gold cord
DECA	blue/white cord
Educators Rising	red/black cord
FBLA	royal blue/gold double cord
FFA	royal blue/gold intertwined cord
Hispanic Culture Club	TBD
HOSA	HOSA pin
Key Club	gray cord
Muslim Student Association	dark green/gold cord
Pharmacy Technician Certification	dark green cord
State Nurse Aide Certification	navy blue cord
Student Council	medal
French Honor Society	red/white/blue cord
International Thespian Society	royal blue/gold double cord with medallion
National Achievers Society	black/cold double cord
National Art Honor Society	red/orange/yellow/green/blue/purple cord
National Honor Society	silver stole
National Honor Society for Dance Arts	light blue/white cord
National Technical Honor Society	purple/silver cord
Science National Honor Society	blue/gold cord with gold tassel
Spanish Honor Society	gold/red cord
Tri-M Music Honor Society	pink cord