Drop Off of all Materials 5/12

In addition to picking up caps, gowns, and honors stoles, seniors will DROP OFF all materials they need to return.

This includes library books, athletic uniforms, textbooks, spring musical scripts, musical instruments, calculators, supplemental novels, lab equipment, and all other items.

Please use this free time to find all those items from underneath beds, in car trunks, backs of closets, and bottoms of backpacks to return on this day.

Procedures are detailed in the next slides.

Drop Off Procedures

All books: Write your name legibly and clearly on a piece of paper and tape it securely to the front of each individual book. This includes textbooks, media center books, and supplemental books.

Uniforms: Put it in a plastic bag and make sure your name is on the bag or inside the bag. Don't forget warm-ups and any accessory parts of the uniform.

Music or scripts: Secure your name with a post-it note to the front so as to not damage the materials.

Drop Off Procedures

Use the entrance for the student parking lot and head towards the circle near the Murphy Building.

Return items at each station for each department. At some stations, you will not have anything to drop off. Simply tell them, for example, “I do not have any items for the Social Studies department.”

Then move on to each station providing materials where needed.

At no point should you get out of your car. If you have a face mask, please wear a mask during the process.

Picking up Honors Cords

In addition to dropping off items, you will pick up cords from any honor societies of which you are a member, paid dues, and are in good standing.

Please be aware that while you may not have an item to return to every department, you may need to pick up cords from some of these departments.

Be sure you have done everything at each station.
