

PROJECT Enlightenment

Helping young children succeed at home, at school . . . in life.

PARENT WORKSHOPS 2018-2019

Welcome to a new year of parent workshops!

Project Enlightenment is a comprehensive early childhood education and early prevention program through the Office of Early Learning of the Wake County Public School System.

Since 1969, we have worked with parents, teachers and caregivers, providing the knowledge and skills to help young children (birth through kindergarten age) be successful in school and in life.

Below is a listing of the variety of services that we offer.

Project Enlightenment Programs & Services

The Alice K. Burrows Parent Teacher Resource Center

Available for parents, teachers, and others interested in finding resources about young children, the Resource Center includes a lending library of books and videos, activity ideas and other materials concerning young children. Call 919-694-8990 for further information and hours.

Screening Program

Screening is available for three- and four-year-old children when parents have a specific concern about a child's development such as speech or language. Call 919-694-8993 for further information. All screening services are free of charge.

Two Demonstration Preschool Classrooms:

Two inclusive classrooms are located at Project Enlightenment. The use of best practices in early childhood education makes both of them excellent training sites for hundreds of educators and parents each year. Call 919-856-7774 for further information.

Teacher/Parent Consultation

Project Enlightenment provides consultation in early childhood classrooms around individual children. Teacher Parent Consultants (TPCs) address classroom difficulties with behavior, social development and learning for children enrolled in preschools and child care facilities in Wake County. Requests for consultation can be made by directors/teachers. In public school kindergartens and in collaboration with School Intervention Teams, TPC's provide support to parents/families of public kindergarten children. Requests for consultation are made by elementary school principals. Call 919-856-7774 for more information.

Facebook Page

Project Enlightenment stays abreast of important and interesting information and resources regarding young children birth through kindergarten. Information is shared through social media as well as through conventional methods such as flyers and brochures. Project Enlightenment does not share the personal information of our clients and patrons.

Parent Counseling

Free, short-term counseling is available as a support to help parents with concerns about child behavior and family issues affecting child development and learning. If you are facing challenging issues that impact you and your child, call 919-694-8991 to schedule an appointment.

Triple P: Positive Parenting Program at Project Enlightenment

Triple P is an internationally recognized evidence based program that gives parents the skills they need to raise confident and healthy children, manage behavior and prevent problems from occurring in the first place. For more information, please call 919-694-8991.

Parent Workshops

Workshops are available throughout the school year for parents of young children. Topics include discipline techniques, communication, school readiness, and child development. All workshops occur at Project Enlightenment from 6:30 pm until 8:30 pm. Fees are listed on the registration page. Call 919-856-7774 x 27025 for more information about workshops. This brochure lists the workshops offered for the 2018-2019 school year.

WORKSHOP REGISTRATION AND INFORMATION

About Parent Workshops...

Registration- There are two types of classes offered: single-session classes and multiple-session series. Some workshops are offered more than once. Pre-registration is required for all classes or series. Please note registration deadlines. Registration is on a first-come, first-served basis as class sizes are limited. Plan to arrive fifteen minutes early for your class to allow time to sign in and receive materials.

Instructors- Classes are taught by professionals who have advanced degrees and extensive experience in child development.

Workshop Location- Workshops are held at Project Enlightenment, 501 S. Boylan Ave., Raleigh, NC 27603 unless otherwise indicated.

Inclement Weather- Project Enlightenment is part of the Wake County Public School System. If schools (or after school activities) are closed due to weather conditions, workshops will be cancelled and rescheduled. A new date will be emailed as soon as possible or visit our website at wcps.net/projectenlightenment for re-scheduled class dates.

Child Care- Children are not allowed to attend workshops and children may not be left unattended in the building while parents attend workshops. Please make other child care arrangements for your children when attending any workshop.

Cancellation Policy- Project Enlightenment maintains a "no refund" policy unless a workshop is cancelled due to low enrollment. Participants will be notified one week in advance of the workshop start date if it is cancelled.
