GLOBAL POINTS OF PROGRESS: China -- Seven electronic cigarette brands have shown their support for a government effort to shut down websites that sell and advertise these products. The Chinese tobacco regulator issued a statement in November citing health concerns for minors as a reason for the campaign. Among the companies that issued a statement of support was RELX, which holds 60% of the e-cigarette market share in China. "We will fully act to terminate all sales and advertising on the internet," the company said on its social media account. China has more than 7.4 million 3-cigarette consumers and is the world's largest maker of 3-cigarette products, according to a study by Tsinghua University's Public Health and Technology Supervision Research Group.

Appalachian's Walker College of Business invites Broughton students to apply to the 2020 Martha Guy Summer Institute! The application to apply opens on December 1, 2019. The Martha Guy Summer Institute (MGSI) has a sixteen year history of providing a unique summer program for high-achieving high school juniors interested in pursuing a degree in some area of business. MGSI is looking for participants from North Carolina, South Carolina, Tennessee, Virginia and beyond! As a way to be more inclusive, this year the program will offer significantly reduced fees for tuition/ meal plan – a 40% reduction! As a way to accomplish this, the camp has been restructured into a two-week program. The institute provides on-campus instruction and fun activities, as well as possible local and/or regional travel. Participants will develop their leadership skills, explore careers in business, meet business leaders and develop new business ideas to present to industry leaders. Those participating in Finance Academy, DECA or FBLA clubs, as well as others interested in business are typically good fit applicants for the program. Program dates – July 19–August 1, 2020 Application deadline – February 28, 2020 Tuition – $1000 + $350 meal plan* - a 40% reduction from the 2019 program! *need-based tuition scholarships are available

COMMUNITY SERVICE OPPORTUNITIES

Community Hope is an academically structured mentoring and literacy program that addresses the individual learning needs and holistic growth of students living in under resourced communities in Raleigh. The Community Hope Mentoring program matches a volunteer mentor (ages 16+) with a child. Our mentors meet with their students once a week throughout the traditional school year. Through this one-on-one mentoring relationship, students receive support, affirmation, and guidance from a positive role model to encourage their personal character development and academic success. With your help, students can gain more than one grade level of literacy proficiency each year as well as an expanded vision for their future. For more information contact Kelsey Swift at 919-582-2223 ext.2223.

Two camps offered by the Raleigh Parks & Recreation Department: Teen X-treme is a high quality summer camp program specifically designed for teens ages 12-14. This program leads teens through a broad curriculum of socially interactive experiences that includes arts and craft, field trips, indoor/outdoor recreational games, character & leadership, and other fun activities. The first one is called Campus Cruising, where they spend a week visiting two college campuses a day. The second one is called "Teen Corp" which gives community service [20 hours] by doing service projects around Raleigh. For more information, visit <https://www.raleighnc.gov/parks/content/ParksRec/Articles/Programs/Teen/TeenSummerCamps.html>.

The Summer Training in Academic Research (STAR) Program, a summer program hosted by Duke University, provides a high-quality research experience for undergraduate students, high school students, and middle and high school teachers during the summer academic break. The eight-week program, held June 22 to August 13, 2020, will give participants who are interested in science and medicine real hands-on experience in research methodology and writing. Participants are placed in teams and matched with Duke faculty mentors to work on an original, hypothesis-driven project, originating as a one-page summary and culminating in a complete research paper. A goal of the program is to have every participant qualify for co-authorship on a peer-reviewed manuscript related to their team's project. The STAR Program is held at the Duke Clinical Research Institute in Durham, N.C., which has organized educational and support programs for junior faculty, fellows, residents, and medical students as well as high school and college students. Participants receive a stipend to attend, which makes the program an option even for students who planned to work over the summer break. (see below). Application forms for the 2020 STAR Program are now available for download from the <https://dcri.org/education/dukes-star-program/website>. We are now accepting applications until midnight January 10, 2020. We recruit a mix of high school students, college undergraduates, and teachers. The two teachers selected every summer participate fully in the curriculum, as well as provide student oversight and assistance with team-building activities. Teachers receive a stipend for their 8 weeks of participation in the program.

Barnard College in partnership with Columbia University offer numerous pre-college summer programs that allow high school students to explore their interests and put theory into practice in a New York City minute. The programs are exploratory in nature and give participants the opportunity to experience college life in the City as a resident or a day student. Visit barnard.edu/precollegetoprograms to learn more about their summer institute programs in entrepreneurship, women's and gender studies, urban studies, social justice reform, art history and fashion, creative writing, STEM, and much more. Session 1 is scheduled from June 27 - July 11, Session 1-b is scheduled from June 27-June 25. Session 2 is scheduled from July 18 - August 1. Applications are reviewed on a rolling basis beginning on December 1, 2019. Priority Deadline is Monday, January 20, 2020.
