Save the date for Broughton's 2nd Annual Play4Kay game on Thursday, January 17, 2019! Raising funds for the Kay Yow Cancer Fund, this year's event has expanded to include both games (varsity women at 5 PM and varsity men at 6:30 PM), more raffle prizes, a silent auction, an online fundraising site, cancer survivor recognition during both halftimes, and more! The Sports & Entertainment Marketing 2 classes are working hard on this special event as an honors class project (and gaining practical marketing experience in the process) with the goal of doubling last year's donation of $1,111. Per NCHSAA regulations, we don't receive any money from ticket sales, so we will be selling raffle tickets along with special event t-shirts and wristbands (both designed by SEM2 students) in addition to the sponsorships and online donations that we receive. Please visit <https://sites.google.com/students.wcpss.net/broughtonplay4kay/> (and share it with your friends) to make a donation, find out more about sponsorship opportunities, or to be recognized at the game as a cancer survivor. If you know of a potential sponsor (can be via direct financial contribution or in the form of items to be raffled or auctioned) that our students should contact, please email mpatterson2@wcpss.net
