Please join us for a Community Advocacy sponsored screening of the Teen Truth, student shot documentary that will provide an inside look at the critical issues facing students today. Administration will provide student feedback from the assembly and insight on how a connected Broughton community can become a stronger Broughton community. Monday, September 23rd. 2:45 pm. Diane Payne Auditorium. If you have any questions, please contact Tiffany Neijna or Viviana Martinez-Bianchi at Advocacybhs@gmail.com.

As part of Broughton's 5 Year Strategic Plan in alignment with our work around equity and culture, Broughton staff will host artist Sonny Kelly presenting his work The Talk on Wednesday, October 9th from 9 to 11:30am in the Diane Payne Auditorium. We are opening this performance to students, parents, and community members at no cost. If you are interested in coming to this performance, please register at the link under "School News" on the website. If you are able, we ask those who register to consider making a $10 donation to our PTSA to support student needs throughout the year or to bring a non-perishable food, clothing, or hygiene item with you on the day of the performance. We look forward to seeing you all at the performance!

The Caroline for Raleigh campaign is looking for fellows to join the team at our headquarters. The campaign is looking for motivated and dedicated individuals who want to learn the inner workings of a political campaign and how a winning grassroots program operates. With flexible hours, this program is available to all students regardless of their school or work schedule. This fellowship will teach you what goes into creating a grassroots field program and how to conduct a cutting-edge persuasion direct voter contact program. You will meet friends and make professional contacts that will last a lifetime. And most importantly, you will have fun while making a difference in our community! The Caroline for Raleigh Mayor campaign fellowship programs are designed to be a top-notch, informative, and educational experience – providing an entry-level launching point for future careers in politics and campaigns. Program participants will engage with voters in the communities, learn from and work directly with campaign staff. To apply for the fellowship with the Caroline for Raleigh campaign or to learn about general volunteer opportunities, apply online or email us at kevin@carolineforraleigh.com.
