Students still need community hours over Spring Break help: " Walnut Creek Wetland Park, located at 950 Peterson Street, across from Carnage Middle School, will have a workday on both Tuesday and Wednesday during spring break (April 16 and 17), from 10am-2pm on Tuesday, and 1pm-3pm on Wednesday. We will be doing a variety of things including mulching a trail, removing a beaver dam to then install a "beaver deceiver, and building a mud playhouse for Mud Day. Parents must sign a liability waiver for students under age 18. Please email Stacie Hagwood, Park Manager, at stacie.hagwood@raleighnc.gov if you are interested in participating, for further instructions.”

Spring Cleaning at Haywood Hall. Historic Haywood Hall is a non-profit in the heart of downtown Raleigh. The hall is located two blocks east of the capitol and nestled among beautiful oak trees in a picturesque garden. Volunteers are needed to help with some spring cleaning (scrubbing some wooden benches down, side of an old shed, etc) for community service hours. Snacks and transportation are provided if needed. Targeted dates for volunteers are Monday April 15th, Tuesday April 16th or Wednesday April 17th or the following week Monday April 22, Tues April 23rd, or Wednesday 24th after school. Students would need to wear old clothes as they would be scrubbing with a mild bleach solution. To sign up, contact Caryll Poole, Office Administrator, Haywood Hall House and Gardens, haywoodhall@bellsouth.net.
