GLOBAL POINTS OF PROGRESS - Tunisia: Ons Jabeur became the first Arab Woman to compete in a Grand Slam tennis championship final. Ms. Jabeur began telling friends she was going to win the French Open when she was 9 - an ambition that earned little more than chuckles at the time. This year, the tennis star reached No. 2 in the world before making it to the Wimbledon singles final, where she lost to Elena Rybakina.

STUDENT ANNOUNCEMENTS [GENERAL]

Make friends with someone you don't know at school

- ★ If you've ever been isolated from others at school or you were new at school and it took time to make friends,
- ★ you know what it feels like to be left out. Or even if you were never isolated, imagine how it would feel.
- ★ Make friends with someone at school who you don't know. You probably wish someone had done that for you.
- ★ Be a leader. Take action and don't let anyone at school be in isolation.
- ★ If you see something, say something Keep schools safe by sharing safety concerns using the Wake County Public School System Tip Line, (919) 856-1911

ASVAB Career Assessments: Tuesday, November 22

Broughton will be hosting ASVAB testing for 10-12th graders on Tuesday, November 22. Students must register to participate in testing. This career assessment is FREE for students who register! Any Juniors or Seniors interested in joining the military must take the ASVAB entrance exam, but this test does NOT mean that you have to enter the military if you take the test. Students should register by going to tinyurl.com/ASVABnov22. Once students register, they will receive information through WCPSS email about how to prepare and what to bring on test day. Please contact Ms. Asbill with any questions (rasbill@wcpss.net).

October is Down Syndrome Awareness month, to advocate for acceptance and inclusion of people with down syndrome. Additionally, it celebrates people with down syndrome and makes others aware of their accomplishments and abilities. Down syndrome is a genetic condition in which a person is born with an extra chromosome, it is the most common chromosomal condition. Tim Harris is the only person with Down syndrome in the US to have opened his own restaurant and he won gold in the Special Olympics.

The new date for the HBCU COLLEGE FAIR [postponed last week] is Saturday, October 29 from 10AM - 2PM, located in Holliday Gym. Great opportunity to speak with HBCU representatives, learn more about the college admission process and how to apply for financial aid. Register: <https://bit.ly/2022-sto-hbcu>. For more details, email caryakahbcu@gmail.com.

The annual Lacy Fall Festival will be Fri, Oct 21. They need volunteers! It's a fun way to earn some community service hours! Use the links provided or contact Kerri McMillen for more information. <https://docs.google.com/document/d/1yDy1fHBTz6TtzsrkpkshxmZJ-zbCtXfb38cOETCxc/edit>

On Saturday, October 22nd, at 11am the Title Boxing Club Raleigh & Cary will be hosting an Anti-Bullying Experience at our Raleigh Location (13200 Strickland Road #106 Raleigh, NC 27613) that will encompass the importance of being a kind human and channeling out negative emotions in a healthy manner. During this event those who participate will receive a goodie bag courtesy of Title Boxing Club, a mini-lesson on Bullying, and a really fun boxing class catered to ages 8-18. We will have multiple trainers available to make sure each child is having the best, safe time. Our boxing classes are fitness based, so there is no physical boxing against other humans; just great energy surrounding a boxing heavy bag. Tickets are $15 and half of our proceeds gathered this day will directly benefit the STOMP Out Bullying campaign. Questions may be directed to caryevents@titleboxingclub.com or to our General Manager, Rob, at rob.cox@titleboxingclub.com.

IB students interested in taking AP exams must pay online. Exams are $97 each (fee reductions available for those who qualify). Register on the OSP site link between Oct. 10th-Oct. 21st. Mr. Sauls will email each student their join code after they register and pay for their exams. AP exams are FREE for all AP students who are enrolled in the corresponding AP course and enrolled in their AP Classroom. No further action is needed to register for the AP exam for these students. Exam Registration Link \(will not be open until 10/10; students should not register if already enrolled in AP Course\)
