PARENT ANNOUNCEMENTS

Every WCPSS student who rides transportation (not vendor transportation) will have to complete a one-time attestation form. This will be submitted by the parent online here The [online form]. Students who cannot complete the form can submit the paper copy to us. Paper copies can be found here.

Hello Broughton friends.. I hope you are all staying safe and well. I am a former Broughton mom, (Lee Sullivan '18) and the ED for the NC Business Committee for Education, the education nonprofit in the Governor's office. As part of the NC Student Connect Initiative, <https://www.ncstudentconnect.com/>, NCBE is holding a series of remote learning conferences for educators. The next one is TOMORROW and this one will also have sessions for parents in English and in Spanish. Please share with your teacher networks and parents. This one is focused on best practices and student support during remote learning.

Capital Foundation Jenrette/Jewell Awards<Action required by 4pm on 11/16>: The 2020-2021 Capital Foundation Richard Jenrette & Richard Jewell Teaching Excellence Awards Process began on Monday, 10/26! You can review information about the awards here. Nominations can be submitted by students, staff, parents, or community members using this nomination form until 4pm on 11/16.

Attached is the link to view the video of our Parent Session on Mental Health for Teens and Parents. Thanks again to Dr. Emily King, Ph.D, local child and adolescent psychologist and Hayat Shawaa, Broughton Counselor, for leading this important and timely discussion and sharing their expertise and strategies for helping students' social and emotional well-being. https://us02web.zoom.us/rec/share/ti607SZBmhZPRYqF3w1PNPhaudu_D2AtipjAFw5t5E8LvUpejh3tQIVVu-ga-ZZh.mPRIYr6R5liH9ok8

Our very own Laura Lillian Baggett is one of the first performers in the state to navigate live theatrical performance in the pandemic. Listen to her interview with Frank Stasio on NPR! <https://www.wunc.org/post/live-theater-pandemic-one-woman-show-audience-four>

Students who are registered in the WCPSS Virtual Academy for the entire year and who wish to remain registered for the spring semester do not need to take any action. Students who are not currently registered for the WCPSS Virtual Academy and who do not wish to register for the spring semester also do not need to take any action.

Families may apply and find more information at www.wcpss.net/Virtual-Academy. Registration forms will be available online Oct. 21 for middle and high schools.

Student Accountability & Required Health Protocols Form: WCPSS has distributed a Student Accountability & Required Health Protocols form. This form requires parents to sign the last page and submit it to their school. If you would like to do so, you can go ahead and complete the signature page and email it to Broughton staff member Lynne Moore lmoore@wcpss.net. We will keep track of who has turned in this page. Please know that you do not need to complete this now if you're unable to do so; we will provide paper copies for students when they return to in-person learning and this form can be completed at that time.

Now is the time to intervene if your student is struggling with some aspects of remote learning. We at the WELL are fortunate to have recruited some fabulous tutors who are ready to help! First step – create an account on our website. Next, fill out the WELL membership form. Finally, request tutoring in the subject of your choice. You can do it all online. Questions? Please reach out to Pierce Watson at achievement@wade.org.

The UNC System will host its first-ever Virtual Open House, giving North Carolinians in all 100 counties an opportunity to explore the state's options for public higher education. A series of eight virtual sessions will highlight the unique learning opportunities at the 16 constituent universities. The sessions, hosted in conjunction with North Carolina Countdown to College, will run from October 26 through October 30, 2020. Each UNC System university will offer a thirty-minute presentation that features faculty, staff, and current students. In addition to providing a broad campus overview, each presentation will highlight five unique and often-overlooked institutional features and attributes. Admissions counselors will also be on hand in a separate chat room to answer specific questions students and their families might have. Please share this information with your students and we also hope that you will be able to attend. The first 50 counselors and first 50 students that register to attend a session, will receive a UNC System notepad. To attend any of these sessions, please register here. If you have any questions, please contact Dr. Bethany Meighen, Vice President for Student Affairs, at bdmeighen@northcarolina.edu.

GLOBAL POINTS OF PROGRESS - Hong Kong: Hong Kong's latest transitional housing initiative is helping low-income families live with dignity. In one of the world's most expensive and crowded cities, thousands are waiting an average of 5 ½ years to access public housing. Transitional homes built on idle land offer a short-term solution. Nam Cheong 2020 is Hong Kong's first modular home project, whose prefabricated dwellings can be moved and reused when the lease is done.

STUDENT ANNOUNCEMENTS [GENERAL]

DECA Interest Meeting. Do you have an interest in business, marketing, finance, hospitality, or management? Then DECA might be the organization you didn't know you needed! DECA prepares emerging leaders and entrepreneurs all around the globe for their future careers. While all competitions and conferences will be virtual this school year, you can expect some traveling next year where you'll network and make new friends! Please join Miss Fick for an informational session about how DECA will be part of your lifelong memories, be a great addition to your resume, and how you can earn your share in thousands of scholarship dollars. The virtual meeting will take place on Thursday October 29 at 1:00pm: <https://meet.google.com/lookup/c7yz6b3vu7>.

STUDENT ANNOUNCEMENTS [JUNIORS & SENIORS]

Seniors, just another reminder that NC Countdown to College began Monday, 10/19, and lasts until Friday, 10/30. During these 2 weeks, many colleges in NC will waive their application fees if you apply through CFNC. Your counselors and I would love to assist you with any help you need on your applications and are available to meet with you individually by appointment. I've linked a document below for you to access that will provide you instructions for taking advantage of this great opportunity to apply to some colleges for free. In addition, I've linked instructions for scheduling a meeting with your counselor if you need additional support.

FAFSA DAY is OCT 27 - FAFSA (Free Application for Federal Student Aid) is a free application designed to give students access to the largest source of financial aid available to pay for college. FAFSA Day is a free, state-wide event where expert financial aid administrators help students and parents complete and submit the FAFSA. This year it's virtual! To take advantage of this opportunity click on the link on the Broughton website in the School News section.

Countdown to College Week 2020 Student Handout

What Is Countdown to College Week?

What Schools are Waiving their Fees 10/19-10/23?

See your counselor for a fee waiver for a school that is not participating in Countdown to College Week*

Things to accomplish:

1. Begin your college applications by creating a CFNC account and then going to the Application Hub on CFNC.org.
 - This will ensure that you are directed to the preferred application for admission (Common App, CFNC, etc.).
 - During College Application Weeks (10/19-10/30) we encourage you to use the CFNC.org application whenever possible since it is the only website that we can guarantee will waive application fees for participating colleges and universities during Countdown to College Weeks (10/19-10/30)
 - If you need additional help attending, attend a live help session
2. Complete the FAESA
 - If you need additional help completing this, contact Ms. Cohen at jcohen@wcpss.net
 - Financial Aid 101 Live Events: Tuesday, October 27 9-11am or Wednesday, October 28 4-6pm
3. Complete the Residency Determination Service
4. Schedule a Senior Conference if you want your counselor to help you complete your applications!
5. If you are applying to wake tech, you can attend a Wake Tech info session on October 19th at 1pm

Información en español

Interested in East Tennessee State University? As you know, this week is CFNC college application week. In honor, ETSU is waiving the application fee for North Carolina students! As you may have already seen, we have reset our out-of-state tuition for NC students down to $10,500 per year (border counties still receive the in-state rate). Students can apply for free by going to etsu.edu/apply and using the application code ncbucs21. We are test optional therefore, we will only need their high school transcripts to deliver a decision. They can still submit their test scores for scholarship purposes.

Below I've also attached a link to a quick video (1 minute and 45 seconds) about our campus. Video Link: <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=c1qZclm2GM>

LEAP at the WELL

LEAP (Life Expectations and Planning) is here to help students transition from high school to young adulthood. Whether students are planning for college, the military or a career, LEAP will help them properly plan to meet their goals. The program is split into two years - LEAP Jr. (11th graders) and LEAP (12th graders). The target student is first (or early) generation college and/or under-resourced students, others are welcome too.

Pierce Watson plans and coordinates this program and interested students are encouraged to reach out to Pierce: Achievement@Wade.org and/or sign up here:
