From Trash to Treasure: Plastics and Sustainability

Frank Leibfarth, Associate Professor, Department of Chemistry

Thursday, October 19th, 6 – 7:30PM By the year 2050, there will be more plastic in the ocean than fish. What is UNC doing to address this problem? Frank Leibfarth is leading research efforts to turn plastics into useful materials. Enough plastic pellets are produced in the world each day to fill a modern football stadium. While plastic improves our quality of life in countless ways, we are beginning to realize the significant environmental and societal cost of plastic waste. This lecture will provide a history of plastic production, how it is essential to modern society, and what innovations are needed to move towards a more circular plastics economy. In support of UNC Research Week 2023 which highlights the incredible impact our researchers and students are making in our state and beyond as the world around them changes. To register go here.

SENIORS: Many North Carolina schools are waiving their application fees from October 16-20 -- IF you apply through CFNC.org! Start on CFNC.org's Application Hub. Other schools may be accepting special fee waivers, too, through ACT, SAT or NACAC.

Juniors..... Are you interested in being considered for Governor's School?

Join an interest meeting Wednesday, October 10th, during Advisory in the Auditorium. The meeting will last for about 30 minutes. Governor's School is an exceptional summer experience for academically, intellectually and artistically gifted students in academic and arts areas. The program is held on college campuses and lasts 4 weeks. If you have any questions, please email Mr. Newton enewton1@wcpss.net .

Seniors planning to attend the Wilson College of Textiles at NC State University next year: Broughton has been asked to endorse students for their first-year textile scholarships. The scholarships are designed for students who are interested in career fields such as engineering, business management, design, chemistry, polymers, forensics, medicine, fashion merchandising and retail management. Competitive applicants demonstrate high academic achievement, strong leadership qualities, involvement in extracurricular activities and civic engagement and interest in textile-related careers. The following scholarships are offered: Centennial Scholarship, Textile Pioneer Scholarship, W.Duke Kimbrell Scholarship and Distinguished Merit & Prestige Scholarships. Email Mr. Rudder at JRudder@wcpss.net or stop by the Guidance Resource Center [Room 1209] if interested in being endorsed by Broughton. Endorsement is open now and closes November 1.

Seniors considering St. Augustine's University: You are invited to their BLOCK PARTY on Saturday, November 4th, from 11:00 am - 1:00 pm. 1315 Oakwood Avenue, Raleigh. Each student that attends will get onsite admissions (with a transcript and test scores in hand), one free ticket to The Raleigh Classic Football game, the opportunity to tour campus, speak with professors from each major as well as enjoy all the other festivities!
