GLOBAL POINTS OF PROGRESS - United States: New York City saw its first weekend without a single shooting since at least 1993. Reliable statistics only extend back about 25 years, but the city's weekends have normally included at least one - and usually many more - shootings. The New York City Police Department attributes the Oct. 12-14 streak to its efforts to prevent gang retaliation shootings.

The nomination window for our Broughton Capital Foundation's Jewell & Jenrette Teaching Excellence Awards is now open. The Richard Jenrette and Richard M. Jewell Teaching Excellence Awards are designed to promote, recognize and retain excellence in teaching at Broughton High School. These awards are presented to Broughton teachers/faculty who exhibit the highest caliber of the teaching profession. One Jenrette award will be presented for the 2018-2019 school year with a monetary value of $3,000 . Up to five Jewell awards will be presented for the 2018-2019 school year with a monetary value of $1,500 each.

- Nominees must have been part of the Broughton faculty for a minimum of three years.
  - Teachers, Counselors and Media Specialist are eligible.
  - Principals and Assistant Principals are not eligible.
  - Any teacher currently holding a Jenrette or Jewell Teaching Excellence Award is not eligible.
  - Nominations may be made by current and former Broughton students, parents, faculty and staff, or individuals may self-nominate.
  - An individual may submit more than one nomination.
  - All nominations are to be submitted to Elena Ashburn, Principal of Broughton High School. Nominations can be submitted electronically by completing this survey form or by emailing Principal Ashburn at eashburn@wcpss.net.
  - Nominations must be submitted to Principal Ashburn by Monday, December 3, 2018 at 4:00PM.

The Jenrette and Jewell Teaching Excellence Awards are based on the following areas of outstanding leadership in the classroom and school community:

- Knowledge: The recipient shall have a thorough knowledge of his or her subject and related general information.
- Presentation: The recipient shall present content in an interesting manner, using a variety of instructional approaches that stimulate students' desires to learn.
- Classroom Environment: The recipient shall create and maintain a positive learning atmosphere by being fair, friendly and firm.
- Concern for the Individual: The recipient shall respect and care for the students as individuals.
- School Involvement: The recipient shall demonstrate leadership through involvement in activities outside of the classroom and be supportive of the total school program.

The Broughton Baseball Annual Flapjack Fundraiser is scheduled for December 1st 8am-10am at K&W Cafeteria in Cameron Village. This is the primary fundraiser for the baseball program and tickets are $10. The price of a ticket will cover your meal and also support the program. If interested in buying a ticket, please see Jere Morton (#3213), Chris Newton (Student Services), or any player who played in the program last year. Thank you for your support.

STUDENT ANNOUNCEMENTS [JUNIORS & SENIORS]

Seniors: Scholarship Bulletin #7 was put in Senior English/CAPS Class Teachers' boxes yesterday. The Bulletin has been posted on our homepage and can be found by going to Students/College Planning/Scholarship Bulletin. It has also been posted on Student Services Webpage and in the display case outside the Guidance Resource Center. Paper copies are available on the bookcase across from the Guidance Resource Center.

Juniors: Broughton has been asked to nominate three juniors to represent our school at the Rotary Youth Leadership Award Conference scheduled for the weekend Friday, April 5 through Sunday, April 7. The Conference will be held at Camp Oak Hill in Oxford, NC and participants will be housed at the facility. Delegates will be selected because of their scholastic, athletic and civic achievements as well as their desire to improve their leadership tools. If you would like to be considered for nomination from Broughton, see Mr. Rudder in the Guidance Resource Center, Room 1209.

We are pleased to announce the Trey Cheek Memorial Short Story Contest. The deadline for Broughton seniors to enter a story is Thursday February 28, 2019. The winner will be announced at the Senior Assembly on Tuesday, May 28, 2019. As in previous years, entries can be made at treycheek.com. The website and the poster are in the process of being updated.

SENIORS & Juniors may sign up to meet with college and military representatives who visit Broughton throughout the year. Sign-up sheets are posted in a notebook in the Guidance Resource Center [Room 1209]. Teachers must give permission for students to attend these meetings. See Mr. Rudder in the Guidance Resource Center if you have questions.
