College & University Reps Visiting Broughton

Seniors and Juniors may sign up to meet with college representatives who visit Broughton throughout the year. Sign-up sheets are posted in a notebook outside the Guidance Resource Center [Room 1209]. See Mr. Rudder in the Guidance Resource Center if you have questions.

SUMMER OPPORTUNITIES

Current sophomores & juniors: Looking for an opportunity to stay in a dorm, and to be far away from your parents, and to cope with the responsibility of writing a hefty research paper? Check out the Summer Ventures in Science & Math Program housed on the ASU, ECU, UNCC and UNCW campuses. Applications are now available and due January 18. For more information, visit <https://ncssm.edu/summerventures/admissions>.

The University of the South would like to invite students to join our Chinese Language Camp! The program's primary goal is to immerse students in the language and culture of China, while enjoying Sewanee's 13,000 acre campus.

When: June 15 - July 1, 2022

Where: The University of the South, Sewanee, TN

Who: Rising high-school sophomores, juniors and seniors. Experience with Chinese language is not required.

Students participating in the program will spend a few hours in the classroom each day, before taking their learning outside and enjoying the many outdoor activities available during the summer at Sewanee in an immersive language environment. Given the immersive environment, all students are encouraged to apply. Students should be prepared for a variety of outdoor activities including swimming, hiking, rock-climbing, hiking, gardening, caving, camping, and more! For more information about the camp as well as scholarship opportunities, students can visit the Sewanee Chinese Language Camp website.

Job Opportunities

Amy Peake, Director of Employment for several of our area Zaxby's restaurants, Now that school is back in swing, I would like to reach out to advertise employment. Our Zaxby's group pride ourselves with bringing on high schoolers and helping them to develop workplace skills that will benefit them in their adult working life. Many of our graduated students who go off to college come back to work with us during school breaks.

My name is Camden McKinstry, I am the Regional Manager for the UPS Store in the Village District right down the road from Broughton. We are in need of part-time employment at our store. There is an absolutely wild staffing shortage for part time workers these days so we have decided to start hiring high school aged workers.

The Director of Camp Royall, the nation's largest and oldest camp for people with autism is in search of dynamic high school students who are interested in learning more about human services and specifically working with those with special needs (autism). We can offer volunteer opportunities during the school year (and in the summer) for those in need of service hours (any age) and we can offer training and paid employment for students 17 years of age and older as well. If interested, visit www.camproyall.org.
