GLOBAL POINTS OF PROGRESS -- Senegal: A new school has opened in Dakar that teaches people how to use artificial intelligence to find agricultural solutions. In September, the Dakar Institute of Technology partnered with French AI school Vividata to begin educating farmers on how to use AI to increase crop yields. With temperature, soil pH, and moisture level data processed by AI, farmers can learn more specifically where and when to add fertilizer and water, a scarce resource in the region. The school plans to launch a bachelor's degree in big data and a master's degree in AI in 2020.

STUDENT ANNOUNCEMENTS [GENERAL]

Run for Young. The Run for Young will be on Sunday, January 12th at 2pm. A great family event for the young and young at heart, is a USATF certified 5K run/walk planned and managed by Christ Church youth. The race honors the memory of Sadiki Young, a Christ Church member and acolyte, who was a senior at Wakefield High School when he died as the passenger in an alcohol-related accident in 2007. In 2008 the Run for Young was founded by Christ Church youth as a way to both honor the memory of Sadiki and raise awareness of safe driving methods for local teens. You can register at "runforyoung.org"

The Nasher Teens Program and Organizing Against Racism Durham welcome all area teens (ages 13-19), their parents and caregivers, and adults who work with local teens to attend a special Groundwater Presentation by the Racial Equity Institute. The goal of this educational program is to help participants in their understanding of the causes of racial inequities in this country. This FREE program will take place on Thursday, January 23, 2020 from 5PM to 8:30PM at the Nasher Museum. A dinner-time reception will be provided by the Nasher Cafe. The event is free to all participants, but we ask that teens and adults register in advance: PLEASE REGISTER HERE! Please share this message with others in your network who might be interested. <https://tinyurl.com/groundwater-nasherteens>

COMMUNITY SERVICE OPPORTUNITIES

The Women's Center Garden. The Women's Center is a non-profit, 501c3 organization that provides life-saving basic needs and services and programs to women experiencing trauma, abuse, mental illness and homelessness. The Garden not only provides fresh produce for meals at the center, but it donates a portion of the harvests to local food banks as well. The Garden also provides therapy and job skills and training for its clients. The Women's Center Garden is located behind the Alexander YMCA off Hillsborough Street. The official address is 214 Park Avenue. Depending on the season, volunteers are needed for weeding, digging, planting, and watering. If you are interested in volunteering at The Women's Center Garden, please contact Georgia Brown at georgia.brown@wclc.org.

Community Hope is an academically structured mentoring and literacy program that addresses the individual learning needs and holistic growth of students living in under resourced communities in Raleigh. The Community Hope Mentoring program matches a volunteer mentor (ages 16+) with a child. Our mentors meet with their students once a week throughout the traditional school year. Through this one-on-one mentoring relationship, students receive support, affirmation, and guidance from a positive role model to encourage their personal character development and academic success. With your help, students can gain more than one grade level of literacy proficiency each year as well as an expanded vision for their future. For more information contact Kelsey Swift at 919-582-2223 ext.2223.

Two camps offered by the Raleigh Parks & Recreation Department: Teen X-treme is a high quality summer camp program specifically designed for teens ages 12-14. This program leads teens through a broad curriculum of socially interactive experiences that includes arts and craft, field trips, indoor/outdoor recreational games, character & leadership, and other fun activities. The first one is called Campus Cruising, where they spend a week visiting two college campuses a day. The second one is called "Teen Corp" which gives community service [20 hours] by doing service projects around Raleigh. For more information, visit <https://www.raleighnc.gov/parks/content/ParksRec/Articles/Programs/Teen/TeenSummerCamps.html>.

The Summer Training in Academic Research (STAR) Program, a summer program hosted by Duke University, provides a high-quality research experience for undergraduate students, high school students, and middle and high school teachers during the summer academic break. The eight-week program, held June 22 to August 13, 2020, will give participants who are interested in science and medicine real hands-on experience in research methodology and writing. Participants are placed in teams and matched with Duke faculty mentors to work on an original, hypothesis-driven project, originating as a one-page summary and culminating in a complete research paper. A goal of the program is to have every participant qualify for co-authorship on a peer-reviewed manuscript related to their team's project. The STAR Program is held at the Duke Clinical Research Institute in Durham, N.C., which has organized educational and support programs for junior faculty, fellows, residents, and medical students as well as high school and college students. Participants receive a stipend to attend, which makes the program an option even for students who planned to work over the summer break. (see below). Application forms for the 2020 STAR Program are now available for download from the <https://dcri.org/education/dukes-star-program/website>. We are now accepting applications until midnight January 10, 2020. We recruit a mix of high school students, college undergraduates, and teachers. The two teachers selected every summer participate fully in the curriculum, as well as provide student oversight and assistance with team-building activities. Teachers receive a stipend for their 8 weeks of participation in the program.

Barnard College in partnership with Columbia University offer numerous pre-college summer programs that allow high school students to explore their interests and put theory into practice in a New York City minute. The programs are exploratory in nature and give participants the opportunity to experience college life in the City as a resident or a day student. Visit barnard.edu/precollegeprograms to learn more about their summer institute programs in entrepreneurship, women's and gender studies, urban studies, social justice reform, art history and fashion, creative writing, STEM, and much more. Session 1 is scheduled from June 27 - July 11, Session 1-b is scheduled from June 27-June 25. Session 2 is scheduled from July 18 - August 1. Applications are reviewed on a rolling basis beginning on December 1, 2019. Priority Deadline is Monday, January 20, 2020.
