Broughton Community,

These past 11 months have been something else and a lot has changed. For me, there's 2 things that haven't changed: my hair (11 months strong without a haircut), and my passion for raising money for such an amazing cause, St. Baldricks. Please see the information IN THIS LINK from my former principal and Team T.A.C.K.L.E leader (Teachers Against Cancer Killing Little Educatees), David Gaudet. My hope is that you can contribute in some way to help raise money and conquer kids' cancers. It'd be great to have a strong representation by our Broughton Community by joining Team TACKLE. If you would like to donate, you can visit my page HERE, or see other members of our team here. By the way, Coach Dawson and I raised OVER $5,000 last year! Thank you!!!

GLOBAL POINTS OF PROGRESS - Vatican City: A new decree from Pope Francis allows women to be altar servers, distributors of Communion, and readers at liturgies - roles many women were already carrying out around the world but are now protected by the Code of Canon Law. Previously, a conservative bishop could bar women from serving in these roles. "This codifies that women are equal to men in these roles and is big because in some cultures women are still considered unclean and cannot be near the sacred," said Phyllis Zangano, a religion professor at Hofstra University in New York.

More details about test day and directions for students will be shared closer to test day.
