Whom Should I Contact? To best support your student and your family as we kick off the year, we want to provide you the fastest response time on your questions as possible. To this end, we've created a Whom Should I Contact document that provides contact information for commonly asked questions. You can find this on our website under "Our School" at "Contact Us."

Tuesday, March 16 – Teen Talk 2: Parenting Through a Pandemic (7:00 p.m.) Frances De Los Santos and Lila Olson - Although more family time may be enjoyable initially, the stress of the pandemic cannot be ignored. With students shifting to learning at home, the position of parents has shifted with it causing many questions of how to balance it all. This session is about assisting parents with balancing their new roles as in-home educators while maintaining their positions as parents. REGISTER

Tuesday, April 13 – Teen Talk: The Days After: Life Following Grief and Loss (4 p.m.) Lila Olson - Amidst the recent events of the world, many teens have experienced losses such as the death of loved ones, the loss of jobs & financial security, the loss of social outlets, and food scarcity. While dealing with these losses, one may begin to question the how. This session helps teen with healthy ways to manage grief and loss and assists in establishing the coping skills to do so. REGISTER

Tuesday, April 13 - Teen Talk 2: Double Dose: Grieving With Your Children (7 p.m.) Lila Olson - Grief is a natural reaction to loss and can be difficult to manage as an individual but difficulty rises when a parent must grieve while attending to a child/ren that is/are grieving as well. Grieving is a process that requires time and understanding. This session is about assisting parents in developing coping skills to manage their individual grief while balancing the impact of their child/ren grieving simultaneously. REGISTER

GLOBAL POINTS OF PROGRESS - World: A few startups are looking to improve the long-stagnant wheelchair industry, bringing new technology to millions of people who use mobility equipment. Injuries from falls or tipping over are a common experience for users, but because most insurers only cover basic medical equipment, the companies that dominate the wheelchair industry have been slow to update their product designs.

STUDENT ANNOUNCEMENTS [GENERAL]

Homecoming Spirit Days will be held from March 8 - March 26. Each cohort will complete their own week of in-person spirit days. For March 8 - March 11: Monochromatic Monday (wear monochromatic clothing); Jersey Tuesday (wear a jersey); Woke up like this Wednesday (wear pajamas); Purple and Gold Thursday (wear purple and gold/Broughton clothing).

ATTENTION TEENS!! Are you interested in learning how to better manage your money? Then join us AT THE WELL on Wednesday, March 17th at 4pm as Junior Achievement leads a budgeting session for teens. During this session, students will investigate the importance of budgeting and how to plan for staying within a budget. They will review characteristics of a healthy financial relationship and explore how shared budgeting creates opportunities to talk about equality, independence, and respect. Register today!

Tuesday, March 16 – Teen Talk: More than words: Changes in Communicating (4 p.m.) Since the pandemic hit, families have needed to find new ways to communicate with each other as their other social outlets have become scarce. As tensions may have increased during this time, a conversation surrounding the impacts of the pandemic on each individual family member’s mental health is warranted. Although these tensions may not be vocalized, the actions of each family member may be more indicative of their mental state. This session (for teens) is about enhancing our ability to communicate with family members during stressful times. REGISTER

The Broughton Vocal Music program will be holding auditions for the 2021-22 school year. Singers are encouraged to contact Ms. Conley at cconley@wcpss.net to set up to receive the audition information.

BHS Sports & Entertainment Marketing students are so excited for our 4th annual Play4Kay fundraiser event after we raised more money for the Kay Yow Cancer Fund than any other high school in the country last year! Although we're unable to host a Play4Kay basketball game this year, we'll be carrying on two of our favorite traditions by selling commemorative t-shirts and hosting an online silent auction. We are also adding a couple of new elements this year - "flamingo flocking" and a series of restaurant spirit nights. Spirit nights are not only a way to raise money for the Kay Yow Cancer Fund but also a way to help our local restaurants who have been heavily impacted by COVID restrictions. Visit our Play4Kay event website for more information on all of our upcoming events.

STUDENT ANNOUNCEMENTS [JUNIORS & SENIORS]

Off Campus Lunch: Each week, Dr. Ashburn is sharing updates regarding off campus lunch with families. The following is in this week's: "We will continue to not have off-campus lunch at this time. This is to ensure we are complying with the district's eating and drinking guidelines. All cohort 3 students will need to remain on campus to eat lunch this week. I know this is sad for our upperclassmen. Thank you for your patience as we work through this process. I remain hopeful we will be allowed to offer off-campus lunch this year, and I will update students and families when this may become a possibility.”

In the spirit of cooperation, six of the nation's top liberal arts colleges —Amherst, Bowdoin, Carleton, Pomona, Swarthmore, and Williams—are joining forces to host two events for juniors and their families to help answer questions about the college search process. The University of Georgia has resumed conducting virtual visit opportunities. Interested students looking for an opportunity to attend an admissions information session given by someone for the admissions office as well as a student-led virtual campus tour may click on Virtual Campus Visit Experience.

Amherst College is ready to launch its special "Spring Series" of virtual sessions designed especially for juniors who are gearing up for the college process. At the Info-on-the-FLI sessions, students will join current first-generation and low-income Amherst students to chat about financial aid, work study and other college resources, with an opportunity to ask questions and get tips and support. Our @Amherst sessions will feature an admission dean and a group of Amherst students sharing information and answering questions about college resources and student participation in the areas of arts, STEM, athletics and the international student experience. In our Student Zoom Chats, your students will join current Amherst students in a student-centered space for a discussion of topics relevant to student life on campus. Registration for these Zoom events is available through these links:

Info-on-the-FLI and @Amherst \(all sessions 5:00 - 6:00 pm ET\)

- Arts@Amherst: Thursday, March 18
- Info-on-the-FLI: Thursday, April 8
- STEM@Amherst: Thursday, April 15
- Athletics@Amherst: Thursday, April 29

Student Zoom Chats \(all sessions 7:30 - 8:30 pm ET\)

- Residential Life: Tuesday, March 16

- Sexuality & Gender on Campus: Tuesday, March 23
- Student of Color Affinity Spaces: Tuesday, March 30
- First-Year Experience: Tuesday, April 6
