GLOBAL POINTS OF PROGRESS - Slovenia and Croatia: A Slovenian Croatian startup is creating functional, fashionable clothing for people with disabilities. Few clothing brands design with mobility impairments in mind, leaving many of Europe's 5 million wheelchair users choosing from unflattering, uncomfortable, and unstylish items. Fashion designer Maja Simunovic and industrialist designer Hedvig af Ekenstam aim to change that by working with wheelchair users to design clothes that are easy to put on and reflect current fashion trends.
