Students and Parents,

At Broughton, we have a well-stocked pantry for any students, families or faculty that need it. The pantry is meant to serve anyone that is a part of our Broughton community!! The pantry serves ALL students throughout the year that may find themselves in need of food, clothing, hygiene items, school supplies or more. The hours of the pantry are Monday and Thursdays from 6:55- 7:25 and 2:15-2:45. However, we can open it at any other time if you contact us (even in the evening for families)! The pantry is located near the bus lot making it easy for students to grab items on their way to the bus. For more information, contact Ms. Shawwa at hshawwa2@wcpss.net or Ms. Graves at bgraves@wcpss.net.

The Aspire Training Group is hosting an in-person Reconnect for Resilience training here in Raleigh on Fri-Sat, Sept 17-18, at Carolina Pines Park on Lake Wheeler Rd. We are hosting this because we know how great the mental health needs of our community are at this time. We thought it might be helpful for parents, especially if they or their kids are suffering right now (many are!). This public health mental health training will focus on tools designed to help families build their resilience even in the face of hard things. If interested, contact Tammy Blackard Cook at 919-272-6854.

GLOBAL POINTS OF PROGRESS - Israel: Israel welcomed its first deaf Knesset member. Shirley Pinto, a longtime advocate for people with hearing loss, was sworn into the Israeli parliament in sign language and spoken Hebrew. The Yamina lawmaker replaces new Religious Affairs Minister Matan Kahana under the Norwegian Law, which allows newly appointed Cabinet members to temporarily step down so another candidate from their party can take their place in the Knesset.

In 1990, after working in admissions at Virginia State and at Clark Atlanta University, Mason founded the Common Black College Application. His portal allows students to apply to all of the network's 61 member HBCUs, and specify their top four choices, for one $20 fee. The app has a few twists from the better-known Common Application, which students can use to apply to up to 20 of the more than 900 participating colleges.
