Do you know who funds new computers and iPads at Broughton, or models for the human anatomy classes? Where do funds come from to start a Chess Club, or to send theater students to Scotland for a Shakespeare festival? Where does our staff turn when sports facilities need repairing? The answer is frequently the Needham B. Broughton Capital Foundation. Now more than ever, Broughton needs your help. As public funding and administrative support declines, Broughton must work even harder to provide enrichment opportunities and continue the standard of excellence that typifies our traditions.

The Foundation is hosting Broughton's Celebrating 90 Birthday party on March 23rd at The Fairview in Raleigh. We hope you'll consider sponsoring at one of the various levels ranging from $500 to $10,000. Non-sponsor tickets are also available for $60 - $150 per person. We hope you'll come and enjoy the food, fun and Broughton festivities.

Please visit www.NBHSCapitalFoundation.com for information about party tickets, sponsorships and the Capital Foundation in general.

TICKETS MUST BE PURCHASED IN ADVANCE. DEADLINE IS March 6th!

On Sunday, March 3, The First Baptist Church in downtown Raleigh [Wilmington & Morgan Streets] is hosting a panel consisting of teens and adults discussing the "Narrative" written by Douglass. The discussion will take place in the Family Life Center from 3:00-5:00pm.
