

Meet the Teacher

Mrs. Kirsten Marshall

The Basics!

Hey there, I am Mrs. Marshall! . I live in Raleigh with my husband, James, and our dog, Georgia. I teach kindergarten here at Dillard Drive and love meeting all the brand new faces every year. Kindergarten is amazing because the amount of social and academic growth that occurs during this grade. As a teacher, I find the most important part of my job is to teach my students to be independent, inquisitive, problem-solving little people!

My Education!

I graduated from college right here in Raleigh at NC State University. I majored in Elementary Education and have a STEM concentration. My student teaching happened at Underwood Elementary school which is another wonderful Wake County school.
