

meet Mrs. Frazier

I was born in Hackettstown, NJ, but moved to NC when I was one. I grew up in a small town that most people haven't heard of. It is the kind of town where people drive tractors to school! I was so excited to move to the big city of Raleigh, NC to attend NC State for my undergraduate and graduate degrees. I have lived in Raleigh since 2008 and love it! I love to spend time exploring new places with my husband Jeff, our son Parker, and our dogs Spunky and Rylee. One of my favorite things to do is to travel. I love experiencing places with different cultures and food than mine. The coolest place I have been is China, where I taught English for 6 weeks. If I am not traveling or spending time with family, I love making shirts with my Cricut cutting machine.
