

Senior Parent Meeting: April 25, 2019

Report Cards Distributed Friday, April 12:

- Per Wake County policy, this is the final weighted cumulative average for determining Latin honors:
Summa cum laude: 4.25 and above Magna cum laude: 4.0-4.249 cum laude 3.75 – 3.99
- A list of students eligible for honors stoles is posted in the front lobby. Cost is $13 cash on April 30.

Wednesday, April 24: Baccalaureate Invitation and Senior Bulletin distributed with information on all events.

Tuesday, April 30: Latin Honors Stoles for sale for $13 cash in the main lobby at 2:30.

- Also, look for the Graduation Reception invitation in your mailbox! These will be mailed Monday!

Friday, May 3: Jostens delivers caps and gowns to those students who did not get them earlier.

- Students who owe money for Jostens items will not receive caps and gowns. If students do not purchase a cap and gown, they must pay a $42 senior fee to cover the diploma, diploma cover, tassel, and senior picnic
- Only cords provided by the following LRHS honor societies may be worn at Senior Assembly and Graduation: Dance, Spanish, Latin, French, Technical, Art, Math, NHS, ITS, Quill & Scroll, and Tri-M. These individual organizations distribute cords based upon individual requirements.

Wednesday, May 22: Graduation Reception RSVP due (and optional donation)

Wednesday, May 29: Deadline for all scholarships, military appointments/commitments to be given to Student Services Office to be announced at the May 31 Senior Assembly.

Thursday, May 30: Senior Assembly Rehearsal 8:30-10:20 in main gym. Seniors do NOT wear cap and gown.

Friday, May 31: Senior Assembly 8:30-10:30 AM

- Seniors must be dressed in cap and gown with approved attire, ready to go at 7:30 AM.
- Doors will open for guests, as many as you like, at 8 AM. No tickets are required for this event.
- Senior Walk and Senior Picnic will held after the Assembly (for seniors only).
- If siblings want to attend, a parent will need to write a note to excuse them from class. They will give this note to their teacher whose class they will leave.
- Speakers for Senior Assembly and Graduation will be selected from nominations from faculty members, coaches, club advisors, and student services of those students who have been positive influences in academics, athletics, and extracurricular activities, as well as role models of excellence and integrity.

Sunday, June 2: Baccalaureate Service at 2:30 PM at Providence Church on Glenwood Avenue. You should RSVP for this event at this address: lrhsbacc.app.rsvpify.com. That information is in the Senior Bulletin.

Tuesday, June 4: Early Release and Lunch at Redemption Church

Graduation Rehearsal at the Raleigh Convention Center 6:15 PM - 8 PM.

Seniors do NOT wear cap and gown.

Wednesday, June 5 - Tuesday, June 11: Exams

Wednesday: 1st period exam

Thursday: 2nd period exam

Friday: 3rd period exam

Monday: 4th period

Tuesday: Makeup Day

Tuesday, June 11: Graduation Reception at LRHS from 7-9 PM (RSVP was due May 22)

- 9 Graduation tickets will be given to each senior at this event. Please note this has been updated since the printing of the Senior Bulletin. THIS NUMBER OF 9 IS CORRECT.
- Seniors must meet not only all academic requirements, but must take care of all costs for damaged/lost school items as well as obligations to teachers, club advisors, and coaches, including uniforms, library books, parking tickets, etc. Until paid in full, seniors will not receive graduation tickets, nor his/her diploma.
- Seniors do NOT need a ticket. All other people, regardless of age, need a ticket for entrance.
- If you cannot come June 11, come to the school's main office from 8-9 AM on Wednesday, June 12 to receive your tickets.

Thursday, June 13: Commencement at the Convention Center at 4 PM.

- Graduates must arrive by 3 PM.
- Doors open to guests with tickets at 3:15 PM.
- Drop off area for graduates: McDowell Street side of Convention Center Drop off area for guests: Cabarrus Street. Avoid the Salisbury Street side of the Convention Center.
- When you enter, Entrances A and B (NOT Entrance C) are open to guests and closer to the seats.
- No seat saving is allowed. Please do not attempt to save seats and put faculty members in a position where they must tell you that is not permitted.
- People in need of a wheelchair will have an area to sit with space provided for that person's family.
- Appropriate behavior at this formal ceremony celebrating your child does not include yelling, screaming, or screeching. Please do not do so, and please request that your guests refrain from doing so. It is not fair to other families nor the senior who is announced immediately after your child. Most importantly, it is not fair to your own child. This person in the audience steals that moment that should be about your child's academic accomplishment.