

Catamount Messenger 4.2.20

Catamount Families,

We hope that you are all doing well and want you to know that we miss having your kids at school with us every day. Thank you for your patience and understanding as we get prepared for remote learning. Here are some Panther Creek updates for you:

Advanced Placement (AP) Exams

Students that were already signed up to take AP exams in May of this year should have received information about how College Board has changed their testing. If students want to take part in the online testing from home, they will need to decide on their test date and follow all directions provided by College Board. Information about testing will be posted on their website starting on April 3. Please see this link for additional details: <https://apcentral.collegeboard.org/about-ap/news-changes/coronavirus-update>

Remote Learning – Starts the Week of 4/13/20

Period 2 teachers reached out to their students last week to check on whether kids had access to an appropriate device and internet connection while we are participating in remote learning. If you need to update your status or have not responded, please contact your Period 2 teacher.

We are providing a great deal of general information about what our remote learning will look like when we start new learning the week of 4/13. Please review this document:

<https://drive.google.com/file/d/1jwXj0J19WZXWxTttip45vKc61HyNqhwv/view>. Your child's teachers will start reaching out to you prior to the start of remote learning to give you their specific weekly schedule and expectations of learning activities for the week.

After reviewing the information provided, if you have additional questions, you can use this link to submit your question(s):

We will review the questions and create an FAQ that will be posted on our school website as we respond.

Grading & Seniors

As you may have seen in the news, there is a great deal of discussion surrounding grading for this semester including the impact it will have on our Class of 2020. We are still waiting on district guidance and you will receive additional information as soon as it is available. In the meantime, we are continuing to prepare for our remote learning.
