

Catamount Messenger 12.8.20

Catamount Families,

We hope you all are doing well – here is some information for you:

Final Exams

Our most current Final Exam information is posted on our school website and can be found at this link:

Information from Student Council

Student Council, in partnership with our PTSA, is planning a drive-thru event for all students on Friday, December 11th from 3-6pm. As part of it, they are collecting canned food for the food bank and wish to have "treats" for all the students who participate.

To donate items in support of the event, please see the link below.

Spirit Week

Join Student Council for a virtual spirit week! Participate daily to be entered into a drawing on Friday, December 11 after the holiday car parade. Raffle prizes include gift cards to local businesses!

- Merry Monday: Decorate and post your gingerbread house or homemade cookies!
- Tacky Tuesday: Share a picture in your favorite holiday sweater!
- Winter Wednesday: Share your best holiday decorations around the house!
- Sweet Treat Thursday: Show off your favorite holiday baked goods/treats!
- Fa-la-la Friday: Come out to the holiday-themed car parade at the PCHS student parking lot between 3pm and 6pm for treats and fun! Decorate your car to receive 5 raffle tickets.
- Food Drive: Drop off non-perishable food items throughout the week and at the parade.

WAKE COUNTY PUBLIC SCHOOL SYSTEM

Submit your photos by filling out this Google form, sending a DM to @thepanthercreek OR posting on your Instagram with the hashtag #catamountexpress

Food Drive

During Spirit Week, Student Council will be collecting non-perishable items for the Food Bank. You can drop off donations at the front of the school Dec 7-11 or bring to the car parade on December 11th from 3-6 pm. 1 can (soup, beans, proteins, veggies, fruit, etc.) = 1 raffle ticket, 1 box (rice, grain, pasta, cereal, etc.) = 2 raffle tickets towards the Spirit Week participation raffle. Thank you for your support!

Meet & Eat

Attention all PC Freshmen: Do you want to meet fellow freshmen outside of your classes? Come to our first Meet & Eat to participate in a virtual escape room while getting to know your peers! If interested, fill out the Google Form below by December 9th to receive the Google Meet code.

Scrolling Announcements & Yearbook

As a reminder, the scrolling announcements (on the PCHS webpage) contain information about club meetings, student activities, and other school information. Groups periodically put out student surveys through the scrolling announcements – for example, the Yearbook team is seeking input on the topics here: <https://docs.google.com/presentation/d/1CFE9flhQLKy5BWrf0ax2NKDWTX5EtBLZlcAP2rDQegQ/edit?usp=sharing> Please check the scrolling announcements often.

The Yearbook team has also extended Grad Ads to December 18th:

Student Services Information

Please visit the Student Services website for updated information and to sign up for an appointment with your counselor: <http://pchsstudentservices.weebly.com/>

PTSA Information

Donations needed! The Panther Creek PTSA works hard throughout the year to provide for teacher appreciation, classroom resources (like lab equipment, media center furniture, an online program for science) and student enrichment. We encourage parents, students, and teachers to join us at this link: <https://www.panthercreekptsa.org/membership.html>

As we move into this season of giving, please consider making a donation to support our PTSA. Help show our teachers how much they're appreciated and show our students how proud we are of all their hard work. Donations can be made to the PTSA by clicking here:
