

WAKEFIELD HIGH SCHOOL

Honor Code Policy 2025-2026

As described in WCPSS Board Policy 4310, violations of the Honor Code include all forms of cheating, plagiarism, falsification and deceit. At Wakefield High School, all violations will result in both academic and disciplinary consequences.

FOLLOWING ANY HONOR CODE VIOLATION...

- 1 The teacher will discuss the incident with the student and parents.
- 2 The teacher will report the incident in ECATS .
- 3 An administrator will meet with the teacher to determine level infraction and consequences.
- 4 The teacher, student, and administrator will call home to share details of the violation and applicable consequences.

INFRACTION LEVEL

LEVEL ONE

Cheating, plagiarism, falsification or deceit on any assignment or assessment

LEVEL TWO

Repeat offense of Level I or sharing assignments, assessments, or answers with others

LEVEL THREE

Repeat offense of Level II or unauthorized access to class materials

ACADEMIC CONSEQUENCE

The student completes an alternate assignment as determined by the PLT. The student can earn up to 60% credit.

The student completes an alternate assignment as determined by the PLT. The student can earn up to 50% credit.

The student completes an alternate assignment as determined by the PLT. The student can earn up to 50% credit.

DISCIPLINARY CONSEQUENCE

1 day in-school suspension & notify coaches, advisors, etc.

3 days in-school suspension & notify coaches, advisors, etc.

1-5 days out-of-school suspension and notify coaches, advisors, etc.