

COLLEGE PLANNING SIMPLIFIED

MAY 11 | 6:00 PM
In the Media Center

In this one-hour seminar, we will share:

- Ways to recognize a good fit college for your student: academically, socially, and financially
- What matters most on a campus visit: what to look for and what questions to ask
- The college application timeline
- The most important factors in the college admission process and how to make your student stand out
- College affordability: how to determine which colleges will be most generous with need-based and merit-based aid
