

WAKE COUNTY
PUBLIC SCHOOL SYSTEM

Read to Achieve

The Read to Achieve program is part of The Excellent
Public Schools Act of N.C.
(NC House Bill 950),
which became law in July 2012.

Goal of Legislation

- All students proficient readers by the end of third grade.
- Gives students multiple opportunities to show proficiency
- Gives extra support to third and fourth grade students

WAKE COUNTY PUBLIC SCHOOL SYSTEM

KEY QUESTIONS

- What steps are being taken to get your 3rd-grader reading at or above grade level?
- How will the State determine if your child is reading at or above grade level?
- What will happen if your child isn't reading at or above grade level?
- How can you help your child with his or her reading?

What steps are being taken to get your 3rd grader reading at or above grade level?

We are providing strong instruction in literacy.

WAKE COUNTY
PUBLIC SCHOOL SYSTEM

What steps are being taken to get your 3rd grader reading at or above grade level?

We are providing extra help to students who need it.

WAKE COUNTY
PUBLIC SCHOOL SYSTEM

What steps are being taken to get your 3rd grader reading at or above grade level?

We are gathering information on your child's progress.

Mastery of core literacy
instruction

Your child's teacher will continue to observe and monitor their progress.

Results of their formal
assessments

These assessments include mCLASS and CASE 21, along with the EOG.

Progress on their reading
passages

Students have an opportunity to demonstrate proficiency on passages aligned with the standards.

What steps are being taken to get your 3rd grader reading at or above grade level?

We are sharing information on your child's progress.

Mastery of
core literacy
instruction

We'll talk about this specifically during conferences, emails, or reports home.

Results of their formal
assessments

You will get formal reports, including the Home Connect letter.

Progress on their reading
passages

We'll share standards and scores.

What steps are being taken to get your 3rd grader reading at or above grade level?

We are sharing information on your child's progress.

mCLASS® Literacy Progress Report

HOME CONNECTION

Last updated: November 27, 2017

Needs Most Support

What does this mean?

To reach grade level expectations, Robinson needs a great deal of additional practice, both at school and at home.

Why is Robinson being tested?

The teachers and administrators at our school want Robinson to read successfully. As part of this commitment, our school uses a test called DIBELS which stands for Dynamic Indicators of Basic Early Literacy Skills to measure how many important reading skills Robinson has learned.

What can I do?

To reinforce what Robinson is learning in school, you can read together every day at home.

What are the skills Robinson should learn to become a good reader?

Phonemic Awareness
Hearing and using sounds in spoken words

We no longer measure Robinson's phonemic awareness because students should have this skill by the middle of first grade.

Phonics
Knowing sounds of letters and sounding out written words measured by DIBELS Nonword Word Fluency (NWF)

Can you do it...
...sound out simple words like van? (v-n-a-n)
...read words with a lot of two- and three-letter words?

Reading letter sounds (NWF-Correct Letter Sounds)

Reading whole words (NWF-Whole Words Read)

Accurate and Fluent Reading
Reading words in stories easily, quickly, and correctly, measured by DIBELS Oral Reading Fluency (ORF)

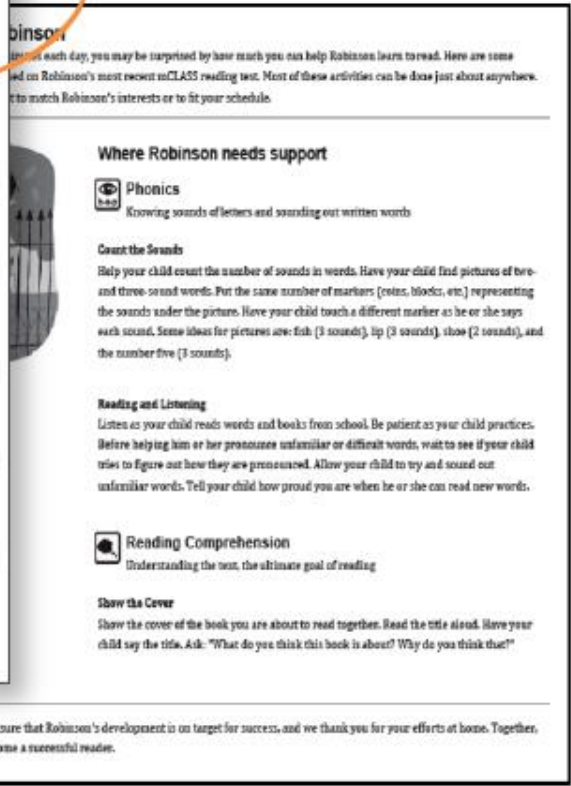

Can you do it...
...read all the words in a very short story?
...recognize familiar words without sounding them out?
...blend letter-sounds to read unfamiliar words?
...read words by themselves and in very short stories easily?

Reading with fluency (ORF)

Reading with accuracy (ORF)

Reading Comprehension
Reading for comprehension, the ultimate goal of reading, is measured by Text Reading and Comprehension (TRC)

Instructional reading level (TRC)

Where Robinson needs support

Phonics
Knowing sounds of letters and sounding out written words

Count the Sounds
Help your child count the number of sounds in words. Have your child find pictures of two- and three-sound words. Put the same number of markers (coins, blocks, etc.) representing the sounds under the picture. Have your child touch a different marker as he or she says each sound. Some ideas for pictures are: fish (3 sounds), lip (3 sounds), shoe (2 sounds), and the number five (3 sounds).

Reading and Listening
Listen as your child reads words and books from school. Be patient as your child practices. Before helping him or her pronounce unfamiliar or difficult words, wait to see if your child tries to figure out how they are pronounced. Allow your child to try and sound out unfamiliar words. Tell your child how proud you are when he or she can read new words.

Reading Comprehension
Understanding the text, the ultimate goal of reading

Show the Cover
Show the cover of the book you are about to read together. Read the title aloud. Have your child say the title. Ask, "What do you think this book is about? Why do you think that?"

We are working hard to ensure that Robinson's development is on target for success, and we thank you for your efforts at home. Together, we will help Robinson become a successful reader.

Results of their formal assessments

The law outlines that if a 3rd-grader is NOT reading at grade level by the end of Grade 3, they will be encouraged to attend a free, district-sponsored reading camp, offered for at least 72 hours, to receive additional reading support.

Students will be invited to attend the reading camp during the summer if they do not pass the Reading EOG or qualify for a good cause exemption.

How will the State determine that your child is reading at or above grade level?

Good cause exemptions include any student who:

- demonstrates, through a student reading portfolio, reading proficiency appropriate for 3rd-grade students
- demonstrates proficiency on Read to Achieve Test
- is a Limited English Proficient (LEP) student with fewer than two years of instruction in the ESL program
- has a disability and whose individualized education program (IEP) indicates (i) use of the NCEXTEND 1 alternate assessment, (ii) at least a two-school-year delay in educational performance or (iii) receipt of intensive reading interventions for at least two school years
- has (i) received reading intervention and (ii) previously been retained more than once in kindergarten or Grades 1 through 3
- demonstrates reading proficiency appropriate for 3rd-grade students on approved alternate assessments approved by the State Board of Education

If your child is determined to be reading below grade level, you have two choices:

Attend Camp

- Your child will be retested at the end of camp and move into the 4th grade if proficient.
- Children who are still not reading at grade level will have a 'retention designation' and receive additional support in 4th grade.
- The retention designation will be removed if the child demonstrates proficiency by mid-year of 4th grade.

Decline Camp

- Your child will have the opportunity to take an assessment on a designated date and time.
- Students who are not proficient based on the assessment will have a 'retention designation' and receive additional support in 4th grade.
- The retention designation will be removed if the child demonstrates proficiency by mid-year of 4th grade.

How can I help my child with his or her reading?

Read together for at least 20 minutes each day!

- Parent/Teacher Communication
- Home Connect Activities
- Visit the library
- Stay involved