HawkBlast Update | April 22, 2018

Interim Progress Reports

Interim progress reports will be distributed on Wednesday, April 25. If you have any questions, please reach out to the teacher.

This Week: Rising Senior Night!

On Tuesday, April 24 at 7pm in the HSHS Auditorium, we will present the annual Rising Senior Night. Particularly for 11th grade parents who have never gone through the senior year before, we offer this night to help identify some of the key items, deadlines, and tasks that go along with the senior year. Knowing what to expect can greatly help you prepare your student to take on the wonderful opportunities and challenges of the senior year. Hope you can join us.

This Week: AP Parent Night

On Thursday, April 26 at 7pm in the HSHS Auditorium, we will present the annual AP Parent Night. This event is geared toward parents of students taking Advanced Placement (AP) classes for 2018-19. This event is particularly useful to parents of students who have never taken an AP course before. Our goal is to share what you can expect in terms of rigor, give you an overview of courses you signed up for, information about support structures that are in place to encourage a great experience, and for many courses information about what semester you may be able to expect the course to fall. Please come out and join us!
